DEATH THROES — Smoke billowed out of the old Donahue mansion on Lincoln Avenue after start of fire today which officials believe may have been deliberately set. The 100-year-old house was so badly damaged it may have to be demolished. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

Arsonists Blamed In Sunday School, Lodge Hall Fires

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

A historic and once-fashionable mansion was gutted by fire in San Rafael today just as firemen finished fighting another outbreak—in an office building a mile away.

The office building fire, which caused $20,000 structural damage to offices in the Odd Fellows Building at 1514 Fifth Avenue, was deliberately set by prowlers who ransacked the premises, said police.

Cause of the blaze which gutted the old Donahue mansion at 1411 Lincoln Avenue was being investigated today, but Asst. Fire Chief Francis S. Rodgers said it was apparently set just inside a side entrance.

The fires were the latest in a series of apparently incendiary outbreaks involving religious or semi-public buildings which have caused concern to fire chiefs in the San Rafael area.

The old mansion was used once a week as a Sunday School by the adjacent First Baptist Church of San Rafael. The office building had at its center a meeting room used by a fraternal organization.

Today, firemen remained behind on Lincoln Avenue to hose down smouldering beams in the blackened wooden shell set among palm trees all that remained of the mansion with a 100 years of history.

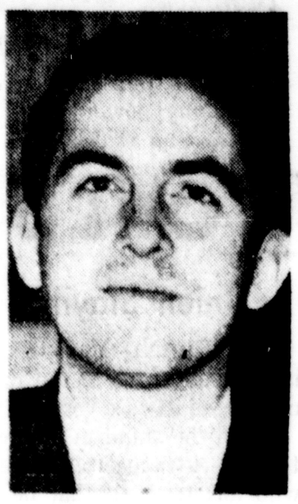

Hymn books lay among the debris of burned out walls, overturned chairs and blackened pianos. Murals in the high ceilinged rooms were charred beyond recognition.

The multi-roomed, three-story house was built by James M. Donahue, son of railroad-founder Peter Donahue, who put the North Coast Railway (later Northwestern Pacific) through San Rafael.

Later, it was the scene of the fashionable garden parties of Baroness John Von Schroeder. Then it passed into the hands of Leon Douglas, who was involved in some of the first color motion pictures and did a large amount of experimenting at a laboratory on the premises. After he left, it was turned into a lodging house called the Paloma Inn.

When firemen arrived at 5:31 a.m., the old house was in its death throes. Flames had spread

KING CONSTANTINE

Greek Army Seizes Control Of Nation

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Greek army seized control of Greece today in the name of King Constantine and said it would set up a new government headed by Constantine Kolias, a self-made political neutral, as the new premier.

An announcement by Athens Radio said the deputy premier and defense minister would be Gregorios Spanidadakis, the chief of staff who apparently engineeered the right-wing midnight coup.

Some shooting was reported as the army arrested enemies of the king, including former Premier George Papandreou, his arch political foe, and Papandreou's leftist son Andreas, a one-time U.S. citizen and former University of California economics professor.

Kolias, 66, a career civil servant who rose from a humble beginning to become the nation's attorney general, has devoted his lifetime to the judicial branch of the government.

Spanidadakis took over the high military post in October, 1965, when Lt. Gen. Joh Gennimatas resigned in protest against Papandreou's efforts to purge the army of right-wing elements. That clash led eventually to Papandreou's downfall and the beginning of recent political chaos that led to the fall of a series of government and bloody street rioting.

Information filtering into neighboring Turkey said armed men were seen leaving the Greek cities as the Army moved in, possibly opening the way for guerrilla warfare.

The Turkish news agency Anatolia reported the 26-year-old monarch had suspended the constitution and declared himself a dictator, but there was no confirmation of the reports.

Jail Inmate Tells Of 200 Burglaries

A man being held in Sacramento County Jail on suspicion of burglary there has admitted to police that he burglarized "at least" 150 home in Sausalito and 50 homes elsewhere in Marin County, Sausalito Police Chief Edward S. Kreins reported today.

The suspect, Robert William Coronado, 22, of San Francisco, told Sausalito police that he stole property worth approximately $10,000 from Sausalito homes during 1965 and 1967, Kreins said. Coronado was in jail all of 1966, the chief noted.

The admissions cleared 50 cases on his department's books, Kreins said, besides many burglaries were never reported. Of the 50, 48 were in 1965 and two this year.

Kreins said his department will turn its report on Coronado over to other departments in the county.

Coronado was "an excellent burglar," Kreins commented, and was equipped with a "celluloid gun" which could open most locks. Only rarely did he use force to enter a house.

Generally, Coronado told police, he stole cash, television and stereo sets, typewriters and jewelry. The property was sold through a fence in San Francisco.

Many of the burglaries were committed with three accomplices, Coronado told police. He declined to identify the three.

Sausalito police first questioned Coronado in jail when they connected him with a burglary committed last month.

Coronado also is wanted by San Diego police for burglary and by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for transporting a stolen vehicle across a state line, Kreins said.

"He has an extensive record," the chief noted, "and we're last in line on him."

Svetlana Arrives

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph Stalin's daughter Svetlana Stalina arrived in New York today, apparently set on closing a deal to sell her memoirs of life with father.

The 42-year-old Miss Stalina landed in a Swissair plane from Zurich at 2:46 p.m., possibly seeking asylum here but almost certainly slated to make a big financial deal for her book.

A 50-man police detail and agents of the city's Bureau of Special Services guarded the Kennedy Airport arrival area and another security detail was posted on an observation area overlooking the gate through which she had to pass.

LBJ Asks Kiesinger For Conference Date

BONN, Germany (AP) — President Johnson has asked for a special meeting with West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger when he comes to Bonn next week for Konrad Adenauer's funeral, a spokesman said today.

Light Snow Falls On Bolinas Ridge

Snow — the first in two years — was reported today on Bolinas Ridge, while Mount Tamalpais' west slope was sprinkled with flakes for the third time this week.

Neither snowfall was measurable, however, and the white stuff had melted by about 10 a.m.

Scattered showers also were reported in Marin today, but the Weather Bureau said skies would clear tonight. Fair weather was predicted for tomorrow.

Temperatures also were expected to rise somewhat from the sub-normal lows prevailing the past several days.

San Rafael had .55 of an inch of rain for a 24-hour period ending at noon.

COMBINED AP & UPI

TOKYO — North Vietnam rejected today a new U.S. proposal to establish a 26-mile demilitarized zone between the two Vietnams, Hanoi's official Vietnam News Agency reported.

North Vietnam called the American proposal "a trick aimed at camouflaging the U.S. war escalation" and described it as a "violation of the 1954 Geneva agreements on Vietnam and the statute of the demilitarized zone."

The news agency also asserted the plan was aimed at "setting up a vast no man's land perpetually partitioning Vietnam."

The U.S. proposal called for withdrawal of American and South Vietnamese troops 10 miles south of the demilitarized zone if North Vietnam pulls its forces 10 miles north of the six-mile-wide zone.

U.S. and allied leaders were reported seriously concerned today about the possibility of a direct, large-scale invasion of South Vietnam by North Vietnamese forces concentrated north of the zone dividing the two countries.

South Vietnamese Foreign Minister Tran Van Do issued this warning: "I cannot exclude in the future the possibility of larger-scale invasion."

U.S. officials say the North Vietnamese have concentrated four divisions of their troops directly north of the demilitarized zone originally created to separate the two countries.

In the war, two U.S. planes, one already crippled by ground fire, were shot down in dog-

NEWSMEN GIVE NOD TO NIXON

Sample Editors' Poll Has Romney Losing Out In '68 GOP Bidding

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sample survey indicates newspaper editors predominantly believe Richard M. Nixon will override a strong challenge from Michigan Gov. George Romney and other potential candidates to win the Republican nomination for president in 1968.

Fifty-one of 103 editors interviewed at random during the 1967 convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors here said they thought Nixon will get the top spot on the GOP ticket next year. The editors were asked who they personally thought would be nominated, not who they preferred.

ROMNEY BACKING

Romney was endorsed by 33 editors, many of whom cited his early start in the campaign. Two others — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois won top dark-horse ratings with nine votes each. Newly elected California Gov. Ronald Reagan got one endorsement.

The editors also were asked who they thought would head the Democrat ticket next year. They found the answer easy: All 103 named President Johnson, with Hubert H. Humphrey getting strong support to again serve as vice president.

A GOOD THING?

Not all the editors who named Nixon to head next year's GOP ticket were sure it's a good thing. "He'll come back but he'll get the hell beat out of him if he does," said Robert C. Herrick, editor of the Muskegon, Mich., Chronicle. "Romney is running too fast and too soon," he added.

Frank Eyerly, managing editor of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, picked Johnson and Nixon to face each other in 1968. "And I'm not happy about it in either case," he said.

But others cited Nixon's knowledge of foreign affairs and his record as a hard-working GOP campaigner. "They owe him," said George Passage of the Newport News, R.I., Daily Press Inc.

BEST CHANCE

Jesse Earle Bowden, editor in chief of the Pensacola, Fla., News-Journal, said Nixon "has the best chance of putting both ends of the party together."

Rockefeller drew support from those who thought Nixon can't win in 1968. John H. Colburn, editor and publisher of the Wichita Eagle and Beacon, put it simply: "Rockefeller over Nixon — I don't think Nixon can win."

Warren Phillips, executive editor of the Wall Street Journal, suggested that Percy's chances also were linked to the fate of the early leaders. "It'll probably be Romney, but he and Nixon might kill each other off," Phillips said.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Union Slayings In Two Courts

OAKLAND (UPI)—The Ben Rasnick murder trial is expected to go to the jury next week. The defense completed its case yesterday.

On the stand in his own defense, Rasnick admitted an extra-marital affair with Mrs. Donna Ward, who has testified that he masterminded the slaying of Painters Union official Lloyd Green. But Rasnick denied he tried to persuade her to provide an alibi for him.

Green was shot to death in his Hayward office of the union.

Carl M. Black, 47, an Oakland accountant, pleaded innocent in San Francisco yesterday to charges he embezzled $63,474 from the Sacramento Painters' Union welfare fund.

U. S. Judge Oliver J. Carter set June 5 for the trial of Black, who recently was acquitted of charges he participated in the murder of San Francisco Painters' union official Dow Wilson.

The Greatest Sport

WASHINGTON (AP) — Boston University Broadcasting Prof. Hyman H. Goldin says only work and sleep take more of the average American's time than does his television set. He called television viewing the "great American sport."

Drugs On Campus

PASADENA (UPI) — A survey of students at the California Institute of Technology indicates nearly 20 per cent of undergraduates have used marijuana while 9 per cent have tried LSD.

Insanity Plea Heard

LARAMIE, Wyo. (UPI) —An elderly Arkansas man pleaded innocent by reason of insanity yesterday to first degree murder charges in the deaths of two fellow bus passengers. Silas W. Pugsley, 67, of Berryville, Ark., is accused of the fatal shooting last Monday of two men as they attempted to board a Chicago-bound Greyhound bus after it made a 15-minute rest stop at Laramie.

Missile Tested

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP) — The Air Force said it launched a Minuteman 2 intercontinental ballistic missile successfully today toward a target in the Pacific Ocean.

Porker Beats Campus Beauties

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. (UPI) —Paula Pigg may never be a GI pinup in Vietnam. But, for a day, she was the toast of the boys at Middle Tennessee State University.

And were the coeds mad.

Paula, who is exactly what her last name implies, defeated seven coeds in campus balloting for queen of the senior prom.

Student leaders, discouraged over apathy in the contest, entered the porker as a write-in candidate and promoted her with the slogan: "Girls are pretty, Girls are sweet, But Paula Pigg has two more feet."

Paula won by a 7 to 1 majority and the other contestants withdrew in a huff.

War's End Asked

HONOLULU (AP) — The Hawaii State Senate sdopted a resloution yesterday calling for a negotiated peace in Vietnam. It asks President Johnson "to exhaust every effort to maintain contact with the leaders of the world in order to enlist their aid in seeking an end to the war through negotiation" and calls for the nation "to continue all necessary support for American soldiers in Vietnam."

War Spending Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury Department says the Vietnam war helped push U.S. military spending during March to the highest monthly level since World War II. The $6.61 billion spent on military items last month raised the total military spending for the first nine months of fiscal 1967 to $50.013 billion.

Russ Test Hinted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission says earth shocks it recorded indicate the Soviet Union triggered a nuclear test in the low intermediate range yesterday in the Semipalatinsk region.

Student Use Of Marijuana

PASADENA (AP)—Dr. Kenneth Eells, California Institute of Technology psychologist, says a survey answered by 90 per cent of the all - male student body developed these findings:

Nearly 20 per cent of the undergraduates and 8 per cent of the graduate students had tried marijuana, and 9 per cent of the undergraduates and 2 per cent of the graduates had tried LSD.

Eells—reporting on the survey yesterday—said the students indicated that much of the drug use had been within the past month. He added:

"We're going to try to make available to students some material about the hazards" of drug use.

Surveyor Set To Use Its Lunar Scoop

PASADENA (UPI)—Surveyor 3 sent its claw-like soil sampler through a flawless dry run early today and delighted scientists said they would order the little power shovel to make a real test of the luner crust this afternoon.

Project officials at Caltech's Jet Propulsion Laboartory (JPL) commanded the moon robot's retractable metal digging arm to perform some two hours of exercises to determine if its electronic systems were operating properly—or at all.

Confusing telemetry data and earlier power problems had raised some doubts about the soil sampler's ability to perform its task of determining the strength and texture of the moon's surface.

All doubts vanished after the sampler arm was extended to about 50 inches, retracted slightly, then moved up and down and finally to left and right.

During all of these maneuvers Surveyor 3's television camera was photographing hundreds of "excellent pictures" of its own legs, the sampler arm and surrounding terrain. By 3:02 a.m. PST when the spacecraft passed out of the line of California's Goldstone Tracking Station, it had returned more than 1,400 photographs.

Fired Teacher-Priest Has Backing; Strike Goes On

WASHINGTON (AP) — A cardinal and an archbishop on Catholic University's board of trustees are backing a young priest-professor whose ouster generated a mass student-faculty strike that has closed the institution.

The Rev. Charles E. Curran, 33, who says he apparently was fired for his liberal views on moral theology and birth control, has received the backing of Lawrence Cardinal Shehan of Baltimore and the Most Rev. Paul J. Hallinan of Atlanta. The 600-member university faculty and 6,600-member student body almost all stayed away from classrooms yesterday.

The faculty passed a resolution pledging to stay on strike until Father Curran's contract is renewed. Many students carried signs supporting Father Curran and marched in vigil lines. Others simply milled about the campus in Northwest Washington.

Teens To Wash Cars For Chaplain Funds

Youth groups from 11 Marin County churches will wash cars tomorrow to raise funds to support the chaplaincy program at Juvenile Hall.

The chaplain is provided by the Marin County Council of Churches. David G. Glauner of Fairfax has been serving as part-time chaplain at the hall for four years. The council is working toward having a full-time chaplain.

Car washers will work from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., except in Corte Madera, where the hours will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Here is the schedule:

At Embee Market parking lot, Boardwalk, Tiburon — youth groups from St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Belvedere, and Westminister Presbyterian Church, Tiburon.

At Bill Boy's Union 76 station, Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon — youths from the Episcopal Church of Our Savior and the First Methodist Church, Mill Valley.

At Holy Innocents Episcopal Church parking lot — youths from that church.

At Larry's Union 76 station, Third and Mary streets, San Rafael — young people from St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

At Methodist Church parking lot, Ross Valley Drive and the Miracle Mile, San Rafael — groups from Fsirt Presbyterian Church and First Methodist Church, San Rafael.

At Emco service station, 930 De Presidio Boulevard, Terra Linda — workers from Episcopal Church of the Nativity, Christ Presbyterian Church, and Aldersgate Methodist Church.

Financing Of Library Is Probed

Corte Madera, Larkspur and county officials met yesterday to begin consideration of ways a new Larkspur library might be financed.

Corte Madera Mayor Edward W. Colthurst, Larkspur City Mgr. Kent B. Bathurst, Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, and county administrative analyst Randall Shores considered four possibilities for financing a new library to serve the area, but did not get into the relative mertis.

The four porposals were:

Larkspur, Corte Madera and/or surrounding unincorporated areas, including Kentfield and Greenbrae, could form a library district.

Corte Madera could withdraw from the county library system and join Larkspur under a joint powers agreement to share library services.

Larkspur, Corte Madera and surrounding unincorporated areas could form a service area, with Larkspur joining the county system and the county providing and operating the library.

Larksppur could build the new library, and Corte Madera could withdraw from the county system and contract with Larkspur for service.

The committee agreed to meet again within 10 days to continue study.

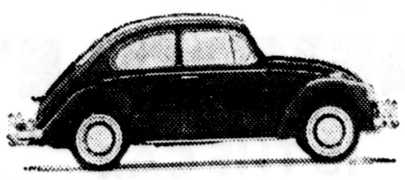

Use Of Rubber Reported Up

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — American manufacturers will use enough rubber in 1967 to fill a train extending from Chicago to Pittsburgh.

The Goodyear Chemical Division, world's largest producer of synthetic rubber, expects domestic use of rubber to exceed 5 billion pounds for the first time this year. More than 75 per cent of it will be synthetic. The total amounts to about 26 pounds per person in the United States, compared with per capita consumption of less than four pounds in the rest of the free world.

Farm Income

WASHINGTON (UPI — The Bureau of the Census, in its new "Pocket Data Book," reports receipts from farm marketing in 1965 amounted to $39 billion, a rise of 6 per cent over 1964 and 15 per cent over 1960.

Controversial Health Official To Be Panelist

Dr. Joel Fort, recently ousted as director of San Francisco Health Department's Center for Special Problems, will be one of the speakers at an all-day conference at College of Marin tomorrow.

Under the title, "Psychedelics and Youth — A Dilemma?," the conference is spomsored by Marin Youth for Action and will be held in the college gymnasium from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Dr. Fort was fired last weekend by Health Director Ellis D. Sox, but won legal sanction to stay on as chief of the center, pending an appeal to the San Francisco Civil Service Commission.

Other speakers are: Joseph Lohman, dean of the school of criminology at the University of California, Berkeley; Dr. Paul Lee, associate professor of psychology at University of California, Santa Cruz, and Hank Harrison of LSD Rescue, San Francisco.

The morning session will consist of a presentation by the speakers, followed by a panel discussion. There will be group debates in the afternoon followed by a summary.

Field Auditor Relates Throat Culture Costs

Louis Lovato of San Francisco, a field auditor for California Physicians' Service, testified during the Marin Municipal Court preliminary hearing of Dr. Henry Chaker today that the doctor billed the firm for 109 "throat cultures" at $4 each.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Ernest Zunino said further testimony will disclose none of the treatments was actually given by the doctor, and the bills were false. He said private doctors bill the physicians' service for county-patient treatment, and the county reimburses the service.

Dr. Chaker, a former Novato pediatrician ,is accused of grand theft from the County of Marin, and three counts of presenting false claims to defraud the county.

He allegedly collected $436 from the physicians' service from June 1, 1965, to March of 1966. Testimony was scheduled to continue this afternoon.

Father Jailed On Marijuana Count

A Kentfiedl father of two was arrested by sheriff's officers for alleged marijuana possession at his home shortly before noon today.

Booked in county jail for investigation of having the marijuana — said by officers to be enough to make about five cigarettes — and of a water pipe used to smoke narcotics was George Clarke Davis III, 27, of 337 Kent Avenue.

Bail was not immediately set. Sheriffs' juvenile officers first went to the home on a report of child neglect Tuesday, they said. No neglect was found, but they said they saw evidence of marijuana.

Offiecrs obtained a search warrant and returned today.

At least one and possibly five MIG jets were shot down in the aerial battle, which took place Wednesday. Details were withheld until today in hopes the downed American pilots could be rescued.

Ground action in the South slackened today but U.S. officials said B-52 bombers pounded Communist troop concentrations in six raids since late yesterday.

Viet Cong guerrillas attacked nine allied vessels in the crowded Saigon sea channel, possibly in retaliation for the first U.S. air raid on the North Vietnamese port of Haiphong yesterday. One Japanese crewman was killed and four wounded, on a U.S. Navy transport.

Wednesday's dogfights occurred during raids on a key military barracks not far from Hanoi.

Communist MIG17 jets swarmed after an American F109 crippled by ground fire, forcing its two crewmen to bail out. They shot the jet down and then knocked a propellor-driven A1E Skyraider out of the skies when it tried to make a daring rescue of the two F109 pilots.

Boiling Water Ban Continues

Muir Beach Community Services District directors last night reported that county health department officials do not expect to lift their order that all drinking water be boiled until the rain subsides, reported board chairman Jack F. Harris.

Found to be contaminated April 5, the Muir Beach water supply has been continuously tested and the 40 residents have boiled drinking water since then.

Maurice B. Scott, supervising sanitarian, said source of the high bacteria count is unknown, but infiltration of surface water into the community's well is suspected to be the source.

Castor Beans Victim Worse

A 2-year-old Marinwood girl, who had been believed out of danger after nibbling on a highly toxic castor bean, was reported in serious condition today in Marin General Hospital.

Lisa Sternberger of 2006 Huckleberry Road became ill at her home Wednesday when she broke open a necklace bought by a family friend in Mexico and began eating the ornamental bean inside.

Health officials have warned that eating the beans, which are the seeds from which castor oil is extracted, can be fatal.

Open House Changed

Open house at Lagunitas School in connection with Public Schools Week, which begins Monday, has been changed from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Tuesday instead of Wednesday, Supt. Marshall J. McCuniff said today.

Does Anyone Want To Buy A Used Wig?

The question was posed today by Judge Peter Allen Smith of Marin Municipal Court during a small claims case in which Hans Steinbach, operator of Continental Wig Salon, 1125 Fourth Street, San Rafael, contended a former employee-receptionist still owes him $174 on a $225 wig.

The defendant, Mrs. Marcia Greene, 470 Quietwood Drive, Marinwood, admitted she bought the wig from Steinbach and he was to deduct $10 per week from her salary until it was paid.

She ceased employment there still owing $174, she said, but hasn't the money and Steinbach won't take the ash-colored wig back.

Steinbach said wigs are like swimming suits, or bathing caps: once they are worn, there resale value is dubious. Judge Smith said, nonsense, wigs are more like hats, and can be cleaned.

that Kolias would be named premier tonight indicated the coup had produced little or no fighting. But the reports of armed men fleeing into the hills raised fears of a possible civil war.

Greece did fight a bloody civil war with Communist insurgents immediately after the end of World War II. It was then President Harry S. Truman move in with $400 million in economic and financial aid to Greece and Turkey, the "Truman Doctrine" that saved a Red takeover.

The latest Athens broadcast did not give any further details of the naming of Kolias as premier, but indicated he would be sworn in by Constantine. Such an action would discount reports of a Constantine "dictatorship."

Wintry Storms Badly Hurting State's Farmers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's $4 billion-a-year agriculture industry is suffering heavy damage from cold, wet April weather, State Agriculture Director Earl Coke said today.

This April has been the wettest in California in nearly a decade, Coke said, and temperatures have averaged 5 to 10 degree below normal.

Pear growers have suffered the heaviest losses so far, Coke said.

"Asparagus production has been cut sharply during April and strawberry plantings in the Salinas Valley have been hard hit," Coke's report said.

Fire District Views Budget

Tamalpais Fire Protection District Commission last night adopted a preliminary budget totaling $143,436 for fiscal 1968, reported board chairman Morris Batz.

The increase from the current budget of $135,000, he said, was principally for higher salaries. The increase may add up to one cent to the tax rate of 94.5 cents, he said.

Commissioners agreed to install three telephone alarms in the Tamalpais Junction Commercial District next January, Batz said, at a cost of $30 a month.

Worthless Check Hearing Is Held

Gary E. Hammond, 34, of 109 Professional Center Parkway, San Rafael, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court today on charge of passing two worthless checks totaling $108.05.

He pleaded innocent. Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled preliminary hearing for 3 p.m. May 26. Hammond allegedly passed the checks March 12 and April 9, both in 1966, with intent to defraud Cala Foods store in Corte Madera.

He was freed on $2,200 bail.

Philip Clar of 314 Paloma Avenue was among the first to raise the alarm.

"I live behind the house and heard breaking glass as the windows gave out under the intense heat," he said. "I raced around to alert as many neighbors as I could."

Assistant Chief Rodgers said the nearby Baptist church was sprayed with water to prevent sparks taking hold as they jumped across the narrow gap between the buildings.

Said Rodgers: "The building looks beyond repair and may have to be demolished —what's left of it." He was unable to estimate amount of the damage.

Meanwhile, at the Odd Fellows Building on Fifth Avenue, police found evidence thieves had been at work before the fire there was reported at 4:26 a.m.

Police Officer John Riordan said the fire was set in an anteroom after prowlers gained entry to the building through a double door on Mission Avenue.

The flames were confined to the room, but not before regalia and emblems of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112 and other associated lodges had been destroyed.

The main meeting room used by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Marin Lodge 200, was damaged by smoke and water, as were several rented offices.

Filing cabinets and desks were ransacked in the offices of American Optical Co., Medical Protective Association, Jenkel Davidson Optical Co., and Dr. Arnold A. Nutting. The doctor reported $175 was stolen from his office.

Tiburon Annex Leaders Gather Petition Names

David Dooley, chairman of a committee petitioning for an election on annexation of all unincorporated portions of Tiburon Peninsula to the City of Tiburon, said today he expects at least 60 signers for the petition before the Monday night meeting of the city council.

State law does not specify the number of signatures necessary on a petition to initiate incorporation proceedings.

Dooley is a resident of Eagle Rock, across Tiburon Boulevard from the Strawberry Town and Shopping Center. He said, however, his committee represents also other sections of the unincorporated peninsula.

It includes Mrs. Helen Kelly of Alto, Mrs. Florence Degeller, Dr. Robert D. Cogswell and Mrs. Marlene Allen of Strawberry; Mrs. Betty Girdler of Paradise Cay; Stanley Bennett of Bel Aire; John Radovich of Alto, and Charles Parr of Harbor Point.

Student Body Leader Elected

Other officers elected were: Terry Hoff, vice president, defeating Tim Trimble; Tom Micheletti, treasurer, defeating Paul Barra; Blair Wardlaw, secretary, unopposed.

Sarah Heintz was elected spirit commissioner, defeating Jeane Rhudy; Jenny Cowger, student activities commissioner, defeating Janet Bain; Susie Strandgaard, public relations commissioner, defeating Nancy Wilkinson and Gaynel O'Neil, and Randy Eames, social affairs commissioner, defeating Pat Eklund.

The school did not announce the number of votes cast for the candidates.

Boy Faces Shots Unless Dog Found

Marin County public health officials today were looking for a short-haired brown dog which bit a 9-year-old boy in Old Mill Park, Mill Valley, last Saturday.

The victim was Matthew Cloh of 17 Cornelia Avenue, Mill Valley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Cloh. The boy faces a painful series of rabies shots unless it can be determined the dog has been immunized.

Marin Navy Man Hurt In Vietnam

William A. Cary of San Anselmo is recovering in a hospital in Japan after being seriously wounded on his second tour of duty with the Navy in Vietnam, it was reported yesterday.

He has been awarded the Purple Heart.

Cary, a Navy petty officer serving with a 10-man "seal team" specializing in underwater demolition, suffered severe head and body injuries in a Viet Cong attack, according to his younger brother, Robert, 18.

Two of Cary's teammates were killed and all seven other wounded when their small boat was blown up during heavy fighting April 17 at the mouth of the Vat San River south of Saigon, according to Robert.

Cary had returned to Vietnam in January after spending Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cary of 125 Butterfield Road. Behind him was a 10-month earlier tour.

Robert said yesterday that his brother believed the war in Vietnam was "a job that had to be done and he should go."

Cary, 21, graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School in 1964 and attended College of Marin briefly that year before enlisting in the Navy.

Cleaning Prices Will Hold

Threatened laundry and dry cleaning price increases in the East Bay will have little effect or none in Marin, a check of local cleaners indicated today.

Higher prices were likely in Alameda County with signing of new Teamsters and Laundry Workers union contracts setting wages called the highest in the nation.

In Marin, Laundry Workers Local 26 has a contract running until December, 1968, and Teamsters Local 624 has a contract good until December this year.

Neither labor officials nor laundry owners here would discuss present wage scales, but a plant manager who declined to be identified said cleaning prices would probably rise after December to meed added labor costs in the new Teamsters contract.

"We can absorb so much and then we have to pass it on to the consumer," he said.

While workers in nearly all Marin laundries are members of Local 26, only two laundries have union drivers — LaFargue of San Rafael and Elliott's in Sausalito.

Many laundry and cleaning stations send clothing to San Francisco, Oakland and elsewhere to be cleaned, but those contacted today said they expect to hold prices at the present level.

A sampling of prices showed dress shirt laundering costs from 36 to 50 cents, cleaning a man's suit costs $1.19 to $2.35, and cleaning a pair of slacks costs from 64 cents to $1.25. Prices quoted for cleaning a knit dress ranged from $1.19 to $3.50, depending on blocking and other factors.

Only Lower Prices

BONN (UPI)—The only West German prices that have dropped since 1962 are for cut flowers and lumber, according to the Federal Statistical Office. Both have gone down about 5 per cent in the period.

College Of Marin's Library Post Filled

Calvin M. Kurzman, a librarian at San Francisco State College, was appointed last night as library director at College of Marin effective July 15.

Marin Junior College District trustees appointed Kurzman at a salary of $14,000 ayear. He will fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Ward Blanchard on Feb. 1.

Kurzman is documents specialist and assistant social science and business librarian at San Francisco State College. He is a former furniture store operator in Oakland and Walnut Creek.

Trustees also appointed Donald Thwaites, maintenance electrician, as supervisor of maintenance, effective May 1, at $765 a month. He will succeed William Raudio, who will retire June 30.

Acting President Irwin P. Diamond reported the following department heads for the 1967-68 school year were elected by faculty members of their departments:

The elections last week were the first under a new policy whereby faculty members elect their department heads. Previously department heads were appointed by the college board.

Non-Teaching Staff Asks For 5 Per Cent Pay Hike

Non-teaching employees at College of Marin last night sought a 5 per cent pay raise, changes in the salary schedule for 1967-68 and additional fringe benefits.

The College of Marin Chapter of the California School Employees Association presented its proposals to the Marin Junior College District Board for study.

The chapter proposed the pay raise at a cost of $24,815, a sixth step in the salary schedule for long-time employees, at a cost of $8,760, and a change in placement of some positions in the schedule at a cost of $6,240.

It also proposed a three-week vacation after three years rather than five years, health insurance for dependents, an income protection plan in the event of disability that would provide 60 per cent of an employee's salary, and a group life insurance program.

Trustees abstained from taking a stand on an academic freedom statement which was sent to the board by the junior college section of the California School Boards Association for "approval or disapproval in principle."

Samuel H. Schwartz, representing the Academic Senate, said the statement had some wording that was unclear, and that the Academic Senate could write a clearer, stronger statement. "We feel we really don't buy this one," he said.

The statement, which originated in the bulletin of the American Association of University Professors, has been sent to junior college boards throughout California.

Trustees agreed that the district should "come forth with a statement of its own" on academic freedom.

The board approved applications for four National Defense Education Act projects totaling $71,263 with 50 per cent federal funding.

Michael Hansen, administrative assistant for government projects, reported one project would cover $16,414 first year cost toward purchase of a 1620 computer, which the district is now leasing. The other three projects and total costs were: 10 desk calculators for economics instruction, $5,980; equipment for Bolinas Marine Station, $20,723 and equipment and materials for science instruction, $28,146.

The Marin Junior College Dist. Board Also:

AUDIT CONTRACT — Awarded Soderblom and Co. of San Rafael a contract to conduct the district and student account audit for the year ending June 30, at $2,100.

KILN CONSTRUCTION — Award Smith Engineering Co. of El Monte, Los Angeles County, the lone bidder, a contract to construct a kiln adjacent to the art building at a cost of $9,257, with $2,000 in proceeds from an arts and crafts show to be contributed toward the cost.

SHOP EQUIPMENT — Awarded five contracts for maintenance shop equipment, totaling $5,324 as follows: Brodhead-Garrett Co., Sacramento, $3,509; Haven Machinery and Supply Co., $289; Davis Saw Service, San Rafael, $734; Catalog Commercial Sales of Sears, Roebuck and Co., Los Angeles, $699; Snap-On Tools Corp., Emeryville, $92. All were low bidders.

PERSONNEL — Hired Diane Howell as instructor of communications, effective Sept. 1, at $7,500 a year; Mrs. Joan Jencks as instructor of history and government, at $7,000, Robert L. Peterson, instructor of physics, at $7,000, Lawrence Hart as consultant with communications classes this summer at $400 a month, and Thorston W. Henrich as biology instructor for the summer session.

RESIGNATION — Accepted the resignation of James Good, custodian, effective April 30.

NON-CREDIT COURSES — Approved two non-credit courses for this fall: "Environmental Problems; th Taxpayers' Challenge" and "Creative Process of Design."

CONCERT COMMITTEE — President Robert E. Rogers appointed Trustees Robert E. Oliver, Alan D. Ewen and Thomas A. Skornia as a committee to meet with the concert and lecture series committee on coming program and fees. Trustee Theodore C. Wellman was named as an alternate.

Trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy and Skorina were absent. Harry J. Moore of Novato, who was elected to the board Tuesday, was in the audience.

Romney Calls For Race Bias To Be Ended

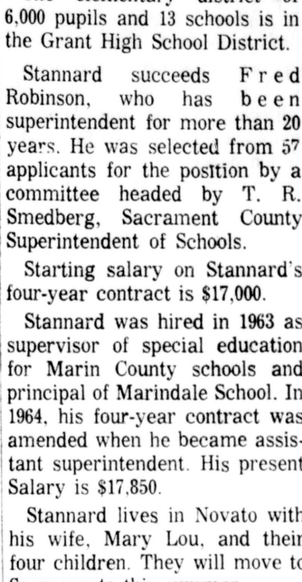

NEW YORK (UPI) —Gov. George Romney of Michigan said Thursday night the American dream will be realized when the differences between individuals are cherished rather than distrusted.

Romney, a front runner for the Republican presidential nomination, called for increased governmental and private efforts to avoid a "long hot summer" in the United States and a "long hot century" in international relations.

"The battle for equality and brotherhood will not be won until we have subdued the last and toughest enemy: the latent fear that lurks in the heart of both the persecutor and the persecuted," he told an American Jewish Committee awards banquet.

He noted that two-thirds of the world's population is non-white.

Stannard To Sacramento District Job

Robert L. Stannard, assistant county superintendent of schools since July, 1964, announced today he is resigning his county position to become superintendent of the North Sacramento School District.

The elementary district of 6,000 pupils and 13 schools is in the Grant High School District.

Stannard succeeds Fred Robinson, who has been superintendent for more than 20 years. He was selected from 57 applicants for the position by a committee headed by T. R. Smedberg, Sacrament County Superintendent of Schools.

Starting salary on Stannard's four-year contract is $17,000.

Stannard was hired in 1963 as supervisor of special education for Marin County schools and principal of Marindale School. In 1964, his four-year contract was amended when he became assistant superintendent. His present Salary is $17,850.

Stannard lives in Novato with his wife, Mary Lou, and their four children. They will move to Sacramento this summer.

Dr. Ascherman Claiming Witness Perjured Herself

Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman, thwarted in his battle for admission to Marin General Hospital's medical staff, yesterday filed suit to force the district attorney's office to prosecute one of the hearing witnesses for perjury.

The petition for a writ of mandate charges that on Feb. 24, 1966, during the hospital's hearings on Dr. Ascherman's alleged incompetence, Vivian Schandelmeier falsely testified of the doctor's failure to properly set a bone fracture at Mount Zion Hospital in San Francisco on May 30, 1959.

Dr. Ascherman "had no recollection of ever having seen" Miss Schandelmeier, a registered nurse, according to the suit, and initiated an investigation which disclosed she was residing in Phoenix, Ariz., on May 30, 1959, and was not employed at Mount Zion until the following July 24.

On March 11, 1966, the nurse was recalled as witness at the Marin hospital hearings, and admitted she was not employed at Mount Zion on May 30, 1959, but refused to retract her prior testimony, the suit alleges.

It claims Deputy Dist. Atty. Michael Anthony was presented this information but refused to file a perjury charge.

The refusal contributed to the hospital's decision to deny Dr. Ascherman surgical privileges, according to the suit, and "was motivated by political considerations and a desire to spare embarrassment to the directors of the Marin Hospital District."

Anthony yesterday cited a Nov. 16,1966, letter he sent to the doctor explaining why no perjury complaint would be filed. It claimed Miss Schandelmeier's testimony was only corroboration for testimony of a Dr. William A. Hammond, and apparently was not material.

Hearing on the petition is scheduled for 2 p.m. May 1 before Judge Thomas F. Keating. The doctor is represented by Attorney Louis M. Bernstein of Oakland.

Republicans Plan A Dinner Meeting

Next regular meeting of the Marin County Republican Central Committee will be a dinner gettogether at Tiburon Lodge next Tuesday.

Henry J. Broderick of Tiburon, who is in charge of arrangements, announced that a 6:30 no-host cocktail hour will be followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Annexed Area Zoning Slated

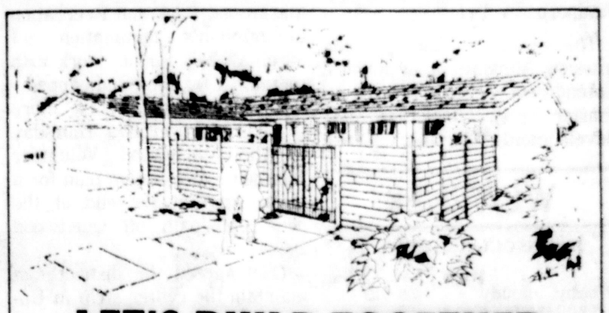

The Larkspur Planning Commission will have a public hearing on zoning the south side of Industrial Way, recently annexed from Corte Madera, for light industrial use Tuesday at 8 p.m. at City Hall. The area is now unclassified.

The commission will also consider rezoning property at the northeast corner of Bon Air Road and Magnolia Avenue from residential to commercial.

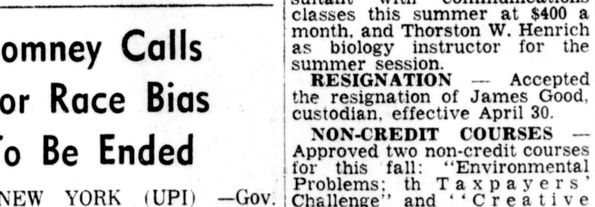

Meadowlark Co. seeks to change the name of the Meadow subdivision to the Meadowood, and the name of Epidendio Way to Meadowood Drive.

Marinwood Board Sets Hearing On Synagogue

Directors of the Marinwood Community Services District last night agreed to hald a hearing at 8 p.m. next Thursday on Congregation Kol Shofar's proposal for a synagogue, classrooms and social hall on a 20-acre site at the north end of Juniperberry Drive.

The county planning commission Monday recommended amendment of the Marinwood master plan to allow the development. The hearing will determine whether the CSD board will take a formal stand on the proposal, district secretary Genevieve Bolding reported.

The CSD board nominated Mrs. Elizabeth Boissevain for "Marin Senior Citizen of the Year" and endorsed the Marinwood Park and Recreation Commission's nomination of Sarah Mullaly for her work with recreation for the handicapped.

Directors asked for a more detailed proposal next Thursday on the Marinwood Volunteer Firemen's Association plan for a picnic area at the end of the pedestrian path off Quietwood Drive.

They agreed the district can maintain the center strip in Upper Lucas Valley as requested by the Upper Lucas Valley Homeowners Association, on a contract basis.

False Report Guilty Plea

Robert Harry Ayers Jr., 19, of 242 Solano Avenue, San Rafael, yesterday pleaded guilty in Marin Municipal Court to falsely reporting the theft of his car.

Judge Peter Allen Smith fined him $56 and placed him on a year's probation.

San Rafael police said he reported the theft April 9 to keep from losing his driver's license for excessive violations.

Officers found his vehicle parked at California and Solano streets. The motor was still warm, they said, and inside the car was a torn-up San Francisco traffic ticket for running a red light.

Hearing Scheduled For A Use Permit

A story headline in yesterday's Independent-Journal incorrectly stated that a use permit had been granted Mrs. Bunty Mordant for conversion of the Gate Theater to shops and a restaurant.

As stated in the story, the Sausalito City Council refused to approve the permit recommended by the planning commission and set a public hearing for May 16.

Big Game Business

WASHINGTON (UPI) — National parks are a profitable asset in many countries, according to the National Geographic, which cites Kenya, Africa, where tourists attracted by lions, elephants and other big game spend about $25 million a year, while it costs only $420,000 a year to maintain the parks.

Pool Outlay Is Biggest Budget Item

The Sleepy Hollow Homes Association last night approved a $16,100 budget for next fiscal year, about the same as the current budget, association president Herbert A. Brauner reported.

Major budget items, according to Brauner, were approximately $4,500 for the pool, including salaries, maintenance and utilities, $1,500 for clubhouse maintenance and $2,000 for the association bulletin.

The association also discussed policy on use of the pool, clubhouse and events, giving preferential treatment on reservations and prices to members.

Robert L. Flanders, chairman of the governmental affairs committee, reported on efforts to establish a countywide citizens committee which would furnish views on issues to the supervisors and keep other citizen groups informed on current affairs in the county.

Bianchi Again Dairymen's President

Also reelected were: Leo P. Hedegard of Modesto, vice president; Harold Fiorini of Turlock, second vice president; Waldo Giacomini of Point Reyes, secretary-treasurer.

Elected to three-year terms as directors were: Joseph A. Corda, Novato; Harold Fiorini, Turlock; Ezra Briggs, Sebastopol; Maurice McDonald, Hickman, and Keegan Watson, Petaluma.

Two hundred dairymen from 10 counties attended the meeting, at which William H. Tolbert, newly appointed deputy director of employment in charge of farm labor, described reorganization of the State Department of Labor and its relation to farm labor. California, he said, is the only state in the Union, he said, to have a separate division of farm labor.

Reporters Cite Firm's Pressure On Stories

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Federal Communications Commission is considering testimony of three news reporters who claimed that officials of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. complained to them about coverage of ITT's proposal to merge with the American Broadcasting Co.

The three, Eileen Shanahan of the New York Times, Jed Stout of United Press International and Stepnen M. Aug of the Associated Press, had been subpoenaed to testify before the commission.

The proposed merger had been approved by the FCC but later was stayed at the request of the Justice Department. The department said the FCC had not looked fully into the possible anti-competitive aspects.

Miss Shanahan named ITT Vice president Edward J. Gerrity Jr., a public relations executive of the firm, and said he had "badgered" her about her stories on the merger. She said she considered "some of the things he said outrageous."

The three reporters were questioned in relation to a story in the Wall Street Journal which charged that ITT had begun a "frontal assault" to influence reporting about the case. The Justice Department, in calling the reporters before the commission, said the testimony might have a bearing on ITT's promises not to interfere in the news operation of ABC if the merger is put into effect.

Taggart Whipple, an attorney for ITT, defended the company's action, saying the contacts with reporters were proper attempts to have both sides represented accurately.

Aug, the Associated Press reporter, told of two incidents. Once, while he was telephoning a story that the FCC had ordered the merger delayed, he was told by his Washington news desk that ABC had complained to AP's New York office that the first paragraph was inaccurate.

Aug said ABC insisted the FCC was merely suggesting a delay rather than ordering one. The reporter said he told his desk that he had the FCC statement in his hand and that it was an order.

Florida Orange King

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI)—Florida produced more oranges during the 1965-66 season than all other orange-producing states combined. While Florida was producing 100 million boxes of oranges, the output of California, Texas and Arizona combined was less than 40 million boxes.

Humphrey Tells Editors Europe Knows U.S. Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the nation's editors today that the government sof America's European allies understand the U.S. commitment in Vietnam even if all their peoples do not.

Humphrey, target of anti-Vietnam demonstrations on his recent European trip, discussed the mission at the annual convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE). He spoke optimistically of prospects for Western European unity, a nuclear nonproliferation treaty and successful Kennedy round tariff negotiations.

The vice president's remarks were prepared for delivery at a luncheon meeting.

Humphrey said his trip to Europe was not "any Vietnam sales mission." He said he outlined U.S. policies and objectives when others raised the question.

Humphrey also reported "a deep desire in Western Europe for reconciliation with the East." He called such a reconciliation with the Communists a "positive" development —"provided that we all move East together."

Humphrey said he found a belief in Western Europe, not widely held even a few months ago, "that our new peaceful engagement with the East might eventually lead, in the future sometime far ahead, to a peacefully reunited Germany and settlement in central Europe."

The vice president told the editors that there is a new spirit of nationalism in Europe, replacing the post-war situation in which Europe and European nations have been junior partners and the United States a senior partner.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Democratic - controlled legislature appeared more determined than ever today to resist tuition at the University of California and the state colleges.

THE GOVERNOR

Asked the legislature to grant 5 per cent pay increase, retroactive to last Nov. 1, to 12,000 psychiatric technicians in state mental hospitals.

THE ASSEMBLY

Bills passed:

Irrigation — Increases from 6 to 7 per cent the maximum interest rate irrigation districts may pay on promissory notes and makes other changes in financing under the Municipal Water District Act; SB 125, Cologne, R-Indio.

Property — Establishes procedure for giving relief to a property owner who unintentionally builds improvements on land that actually belongs to his neighbor; SB 254, Bradley, R-San Jose (Assembly to reconsider passage on Monday).

Fees — Increases sheriff's mileage fee for service of legal documents from 35 cents to 70 cents a mile, one way only; AB 336, Barnes, R-San Diego.

Concurrence in Assembly amendments refused:

Bills passed:

Lawsuits — Grants precedence to taxpayers' suits against public improvement project over all other matters on court calendars; SB 405, Burgener, R-San Diego.

Residence — Changes date of determining residence for purpose of paying state college tuition from opening day of semester to last day for filing registration fee without paying a penalty; SB 515, Danielson, D-Los Angeles.

Committees — Requires candidates for party county central committees to pay $10 to the county committee as well as the $10 filing fee; SB 509, Schmitz, R-Tustin.

Investments — Removes prohibition against State Employes Retirement Fund investing in stock market; AB 214, Johnson, D-El Monte.

Resolution adopted:

Construction — Asks Congress and federal government to let local areas know when bids are advertised for construction projects in the same territory; AJR 9, Chappie, R-Cool.

Tuition Plan Suffers Setback In Committee

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Democratic-controlled legislature appeared more determined than ever today to resist tuition at the University of California and the state colleges.

But if tuition ever should come, members of an Assembly Education subcommittee decided, all the proceeds must be used for scholarships for needy students.

Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan had sought tuition this year to help balance his budget, with just a portion of the proceeds for scholarships. He later abandoned the plan, but said he would push for tuition again in the future.

The subcommittee yesterday rejected a "learn now, pay later" tuition bill requiring students to repay the costs of their education after they have graduated and are working.

Majority Democrats united to turn down the bill 4-3.

The author, Assemblyman John L. E. Collier, R-Los Angeles, argued that young people who benefit from state education should reimburse the state over an extended period of time.

Spokesmen for the university, the colleges and the Coordinating Council for Higher Education disagreed.

And Assemblyman Leroy Greene, D-Sacramento, said the plan would work a hardship on a male graduate of a private university who married a University of California girl — and then had to pay for her education.

"A reverse dowry," is what Chairman Winfield Shoemaker, D-Lompoc, called it.

The action meant the end for this year, at least, for the plan. The Senate Education Committee turned down a similar bill earlier.

Democrats joined Republicans in a 5-2 vote for a bill setting aside any future tuition money for scholarships.

Drath Dinner Tomorrow Night

A potluck dinner for Phillip Drath of San Rafael will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Marin, 240 Channing Way, San Rafael.

Drath will tell of his trip to North Vietnam aboard the sailing vessel Phoenix to deliver medical supples, and a question period will follow. An entertainment program will end the evening.

The dinner is sponsored by the Marin Conference for New Politics. Reservations may be made with Matilda Benziger of 14 Evergreen Avenue, Mill Valley, or Marie Ingerman of 22 Harbor Drive, Corte Madera.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Novato To Gain Another Pizza Establishment Early In May

Clever name for a new restaurant is Tower of Pizza — expected to open about May 8 at 1129 Grant Avenue, Novato.

As the name implies, pizzas will be sold — but also a fairly extensive Italian and American menu is planned by owner Peter L. Giglio, including Italian sandwiches for lunch. These may be something of a novelty in Marin.

Peter, previously of Las Vegas and now living in Daly City until he takes up residence in Novato, is being joined in this venture by his father, Joseph Giglio, and brother-in-law Salvatore Genallaro, both of whom are experienced cooks. Giglio senior has been in the restaurant business for about 35 years and has cheffed at a number of Las Vegas dineries.

Tower of Pizza will probably be open Mondays through Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m., though this schedule is not certain. A wine and beer license has been applied for. Lease was negotiated by Harry Abras of William Timmer Realty.

IN A FEW DAYS American Family Steak House will open another place in Marin — this one in the Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael.

Carl and Nisha Dover, who have had the San Anselmo restaurant and franchise for over two years, have done so well they think Montecito is a good spot for an encore. The Montecito establishment, large enough to seat about 100 people, will be located next to the Crocker-Citizens National Bank. Operation will be the same as in San Anselmo, specializing in moderate-priced top sirloin and T-bone steaks, hamburgers, soups, salads and the like, with hours from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week. The Dovers will take turns between the two restaurants.

Say what you please, the great American entree is, and probably always will be a steak. This may not be the last of the Dovers' expansion moves. They have their eyes on Southern Marin for another spot.

FOR MORE THAN TWO MONTHS there has been a little coffee shop in Corte Madera which has picked up in popularity. The Park Madera Coffee Shop at 510 Tamalpais Boulevard in the Park Madera Center, is where Yolanda Apostoli used to have her Yo's Den and serve Italian food.

Yo, I guess, has gone back to her golfing and evidently has given up the idea of being in the restaurant business. The coffee shop's owner is Mrs. Ina Belushkin of Corte Madera, who has been a waitress at some of the best places in the city. She is doing her own cooking. She is Finnish, but fare is straight American.

For breakfast, lunch and snacks, the shop's hours are from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. through the week, to 4 p.m. on Saturdays and closed on Sundays.

SOONER OR LATER every restaurant, after its opening, must also have a "grand opening." Tradition dictates that the period between one and the other should not be much less than two weeks. The exact period often depends on how busy the place is at the start, and the owner may not get around to it for six months.

Something like this apparently has occurred at the Peacock in Novato, where Walter and Jae Soon De Rose started business around the first of the year. It's true enough that they have been busy—in all directions. Serving the patrons they have acquired and making more room for the continued increase. Diners have been coming from Marin, San Francisco and Sonoma County.

An extra dining room now boasts nine more tables—enough for about 30 more people, giving the place a total seating capacity of almost 100.

So it's definitely time for a grand opening and busy or not the Roses will celebrate one next Thursday. Champagne on the house will be served on the dinner, from 4 to 10 p.m. A good chance for you to get acquainted.

Food is Chinese and American with a sprinkling of Korean and sometimes Japanse dishes. Best chance for the latter, however, is to order in advance.

COREY'S has closed again in downtown San Rafael. Ernest (Bud) Kessler worked hard at trying to make it go, but apparently didn't have the right combination. I'm told he closed the place voluntarily. The premises are now available and so is the equipment. It's possible someone else will take over in another month or so.

ALWAYS WITH ONE EYE on what the other fellow may have to say about places to eat, I notice that Howard Young, publisher of Dining Out—San Francisco-Northern California-Reno has picked six Marin establishments to go in his most recent compilation of regional dineries: Ondine and Spinnaker in Sausalito; Caprice in Tiburon; Rubini's in Fairfax; Rancho Nicasio; and Manka's Czech Restaurant at Inverness Lodge.

And in Sonoma County he has chosen two names familiar to many Marinites: Green Mill Inn at Cotati and Golden Bear Lodge in Kenwood. His entire list is extensive. Diners-out who get around in this territory will find it to be a valuable reference work.

Howard is also restaurant editor of San Francisco magazine and I notice that publication's Diner's Choice group includes Alta Mira Hotel, Ondine and Francois' Coffee Shop in Sausalito; Caprice; and Bill and Adolph's West End Villa and Dominic's in San Rafael.

ANOTHER FOURTH STREET closure — temporary, according to the sign in the window, which says "Closed for Remodeling"—is Mr. K. I don't know what the plans are—I haven't been table to get hold of Alan or Gloria Kurtz.

AND REMODELING has been in progress at the Pink Poodle, 920 B Street, San Rafael. Besides repainting and redecorating, an air conditioner has been installed. Later plans call for a new heating system.

OCCASIONAL PERFORMER at Gregory's Restaurant in Corte Madera is 11-year-old Brian Andrews of Mill Valley. He's a talented young accordion student who comes in a couple of nights a week to play and get public experience. You'll usually find him there Friday and Saturday nights from about 7 to 8, though he may pick a Sunday now and then.

THE FLATIRON BAR at Second and B Streets, San Rafael, already something of a vulnerable San Rafael landmark, is taking on still more of an aura of antiquity.

The Capellis, Charlie and Garnet, have been usinb some of their extensive fixture collection to give it a gay 90s look with old carriage lamps and other memorabilia. I understand they have about 30 chandeliers more than 100 years old.

A MATTER OF FRENCH HONOR

Mayor of Marseille Gaston Defferre (right) and Gaullist Deputy Rene Ribiere fought a duel in the suburban French city of Neuilly today after the Socialist mayor called the Gaullist an idiot. The duel lasted only four minutes with the mayor the victor. He scratched the Gaullist twice on the arm. (AP Wirephoto)

Louisville Unrest Jails 100 More

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) —In the fourth straight night of violence over open housing legislation, policemen last night clashed with heckling whites and arrested about 75 Negroes marching into an all-white neighborhood.

Some 100 persons in all were taken into custody during the demonstration in the all-white Beechmont section of the city. The demonstrators were charged with violating a court order against nighttime demonstrations.

Among those arrested as hecklers were two members of the American Nazi party who were charged with distributing hate literature.

Senators Fall Out Over Campaign Financing Repeal

At the height of the dispute, Majority Leader Mike Mansfield indicated that he would prefer to resign rather than yield on the point at issue with Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, the Democratic whip.

Both men finally said "a failure" of communication" appeared to have led to a misunderstanding which resulted in the sharp words.

The dispute broke out after Long had won what seemed an important victory in his protracted battle to save the campaign financing plan enacted into law last year.

This came on a 46-42 Senate vote to adopt a Long-sponsored tax bill rider which would have continued the election financing plan in a slightly revised form.

The vote reversed the Senate's position of a week earlier. Then it had adopted 84 to 42 a rider to repeal the plan.

Long had told newsmen this was to be followed by a Mansfield motion to strike from bill all extraneous riders adopted during four weeks of floor consideration — including those affecting the campaign financing plan.

But when Mansfield offered his motion, it proposed to leave intact one rider to the bill — a repealer of the campaign financing plan effective July 31.

Long, flushed and clearly unhappy, at once declared he was completely surprised by this and never would agree to it.

Mansfield insisted he still favored the campaign subsidy plan and that he did not intend to repeal it. He pointed out that his motion called for a study of the problem and a report by Long's committee in six weeks.

Mission Celebration Deserves Full Support

Fifty years ago, San Rafael celebrated the 100th anniversary of Mission San Rafael Arcangel with a big civic observance.

Today, a civic committee is engaged in planning to observe the 150th anniversary (sesquicentennial) with a five-day celebration, October 18 through 22.

The San Rafael Mission was established on Dec. 14, 1817 as an "assistencia," a helper mission to Mission Dolores in San Francisco. It was elevated to a full mission status on Oct. 19, 1822.

Although the original founding was in December, the October date was chosen for the sesquicentennial because it provides better weather and also coincides with the mission's attainment of its full status.

Among events planned for the sesquicentennial are a colorful Spanish fiesta, a large civic luncheon, a decorated boat parade, and a mammoth Fiesta Parade followed by a barbecue. A living rosary is proposed where some 5,000 parochial school youngsters assemble at Albert Field to form a giant rosary.

Father Thomas I. Kennedy of St. Raphael's Church hopes to arrange for a Solemn High Mass celebrated by Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken and attended by 21 priests, one from each of California's 21 Missions. Plans are being made for a tableau reenactment of the raising of the cross.

Raymond H. Shone, chairman of the Civic Committee for the sesquicentennial, estimates that the total expenses for the entire observance will come to $10,000.

A finance committee, headed by Irving Chapman and Carlos R. Freitas as co-chairmen, includes J. Warren Crane, Thomas P. Boyd and Louis P. Mountanos.

Efforts are being made to obtain a county contribution of $5,000 to help this historic celebration. The balance of the cost must be met by public contributions.

The City of San Rafael and the County of Marin certainly should be able to stage a bigger and better 150th Mission anniversary than the one staged in 1917 for the centennial.

The joint effort by secular and lay members of the community to make the sesquicentennial a memorable event deserves the full support of all citizens.

Now That The Ax Has Fallen

This is a lean time of the year for many Marinites—especially those on modest incomes who have gotten rather deep in installment debt, when —wham!—the double-barrelled shotgun of federal and state income taxes blasts them.

To mix a metaphor, now the ax has fallen and the worst is over, we can search somewhere for consolation. What better place to search than in Nature's April splendor? The birdsong, the floral fragrance and the deer nipping the roses!

TEEN-AGER MAKES DOLL CLOTHES

A North Carolina girl, 13, set herself up in business with this classified advertisement:

"Doll clothes made to order for your favorite little girl by a teen-ager who loves to sew."

Before "going into business," the teen-ager gained experience by making wardrobes for the more than 12 dolls that belong to her twin sister.

Besides giving her orders for doll clothes, customers have asked the enterprising youngster to make dresses for themselves. But she doesn't think she is quite ready for people-size garments. Besides, she is busy making money with her regular line of dolls' clothes.

Young people, by developing elementary skills, can do much to prepare themselves to lead useful, satisfying lives.

In seeking to benefit others while pursuing their own legitimate personal interests, teen-agers can begin in a practical way to apply God's love and truth to a world always in need of divine assistance.

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good."

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Reagan Won't Admit It But He Shows Willingnes To Bend

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

At every opportunity Governor Reagan insists he is standing firm and not retreating an inch from the various policy pronouncements he has made during his first 100 days in office.

But his statements at the weekly press conferences indicate that he isn't all that inflexible — that he is backing down in several areas.

Examples:

He came out fighting for tuition at University of California, but later allowed as how it's too late to impose tuition for the coming year.

On the mental health cuts, he allowed a 60-day moratorium on personnel firings last week. He followed up this week with an announcement that day care centers, which he wanted terminated on June 30, would be allowed to continue for three months after July 1 to give the counties a chance to phase into the program, as suggested by Spencer Williams, administrator of the Health and Welfare Agency.

A few weeks ago, he was so dead set against the state withholding tax that he wouldn't budge unless he was tied hand and foot and given a hot-foot. But this week, Reagan said he is personally opposed to withholding but "might be persuaded if there is a great change in the public will."

THERE'S NOTHING wrong with this willingness to bend a little here and there. In fact, such give and take is probably the only practical way to get things done. If circumstances change or new evidence crops up, adjustments are inevitable. Such adjustments are reluctantly but gradually being made by the Reagan Administration.

But the administration seems too proud to admit of any "bending." Reminds us of the general who, faced with a need to withdraw in the face of overwhelming odds, refused to admit he was retreating. He merely ordered his men to "Advance! In a different direction."

MARIN DEMOCRATS are all set for tomorrow night's party in honor of Assemblyman Charles Warren, D-Los Angeles, chairman of the State Democratic Central Committee.

The champagne and hors d'oeuvre party will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. at the home of Kathleen Baird, 1644 Grand Avenue, San Rafael. It's sponsored by the Concerned Democrats of Marin and the Marin Democratic entral Committee.

WHEN ECONOMY-MINDED Ronald Reagan first took over in Sacramento, he continued using stationery carried over from the previous administration, crossing out Governor Brown's name and having his name typed in.

Controller Houston Flournoy is still following suit. An envelope from his office which just arrived still bears the name "Alan Cranston, State Controller" on the upper left hand corner.

THE RANKS OF the Marin Republican Council, a volunteer organization, is being riddled with vacancies. But it's no cause for alarm. One by one, the key members are bing pulled away by appointments to Sacramento jobs.

To fill the vacancies, the MRC has named Tom Reed of Ross, Donald Blinco of Sausalito, and Dr. James Dawson of Ross to the board of directors.

BACK FROM South Vietnam, young Pat Hogan explained his decoration for conspicuous bravery to his girl friend: "Just before we infiltrated into the jungle, General Westmoreland drove up in his jeep and shouted, 'Is Pat Hogan in this detachment?' I answered, 'Here I am, General.' 'Then what are we waiting for?' cried the General. 'Let the battle begin!' "

ON THE important Jewish holiday, Yom Kippur, Mr. Margolies got a phone call from a customer in Des Moines. "I'm. sorry," said the operator. "Mr. Margolies is in the temple. 'Going Limp' Tactic Annoys One Citizen

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I'm completely fed up with the "going limp" technique commonly employed by law-breakers when told by law officers that they're under arrest.

Several years ago I proposed to our legislators a simple amendment to the Penal Code, making it a separate and distinct offense for anyone to fail to cooperate reasonably when told by a policeman that he is under arrest and providing a substantial penalty for failing to do so.

The only response so far received from our law-makers was that the proposal had merit and would be "looked into."

Quite evidently they are much too preoccupied posing as statesmen and mulling over the wildly extravagant retirement benefits and other perquisites they have voted themselves without the knowledge or consent of the ever somnolent electorate.

Taxpayers, Wake Up Before It's Sad Day

Editor, Independent-Journal:

There are some compulsive taxpayers, lulled into the twilight zone of silver clouds. Many of these have already owe tabs tied on them. These are the bond issues, past, and present. Some fancy clouds are tinged with gold, tagged for the future. Yet these taxpayers slumber on. Reality is a dying star, that has slipped anchor in time. It has no available substance to hook to. These taxpayers are poor deluded souls. They are prey to the gilded dressup, now used to entice, in our modern method of tax extraction.

There is a sad day of awakening ahead. Our good neighbor Joe has a padlock slapped on his gate. All that remains are pieces of his Piggie Bank, scattered on the threshold of his dream castle.

As to bond issues presented at this time, read these various issues up-side down, backwards, side ways and right side up. Then reach for old reliable Websters and ponder on two defined words — important words — reason and economy.

The next step—keep in mind you must reckon the demands of our U.S. Kitty — moon shots to no end, billions-Vietnam cost, and aftermath to come, with more expenditures, and taxes. Then decide whether to advocate a bond issue to hire able pencil sharpeners to do some hard solid figuring. Patch the wear, make it do — do some realistic thinking — before we bust!

The Dogs Take A Close Look

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Alice Katzung's letter (I-J April 12) stated that "who can say what fate an animal would choose, had it a chocie . . . they might prefer to give their lives for some useful purpose."

An emergency meeting was called with some of the most prominent dogs in the county representing their friends without a voice. Goldie Retriever of the Working Group (she's the noted author of "My Son, the Seeing-Eye Dog") stated that there has never been an incident where her kind have ever indulged in smoking or drinking, therefore, they would be of no value whatever to science. But, as he could certainly understand "terminal cancer patients offering themselves for research" because they already have cancer.

Bradford Boxer, speaking in behalf of the country dog, stated that his bunch are so healthy that they would rather be condemned to death, instead of suffering first, and then dying. Sam Shepherd (no relation) read a letter from his "pup" who is presently serving with the K-9 Corps overseas. Pam Poodle demurely mentioned that her kind occasionally indulged in extra-curricular activity, therefore, she would be willing to look into the "pill" and see that it is made available to all dogs. Because of so much discrimination amongst the different breeds of dogs, she did not feel that this was any time to bring unwanted "pups" into the world. Pictures taken in "concentration camps" were not shown since there were several old dogs present with weak hearts. They all agreed that they would not like to see their "pups" passed out like "text books" at a medical school.

The meeting was then adjourned. Milkbone was served and Krissy Shorthair poured.

Redwood Creek Has Beauty To Preserve

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Redwood Creek Valley is our opportunity to create the Redwood National Park equal to the magnificence of Sequoia sempervirens.

This valley of incredible beauty and potential for human well-being extends from above the Emerald Mile to below the Tallest Trees, its Sequoias reaching to the ridgetops. Not for very many centuries could there ever be another forest like this, the finest significant redwood forest valley in existence, and the last.

Forest walls meet the clear river, the crest well above a football field if it were placed vertically and superimposed. Redwood columns hold the moisture and vital soil, they help control the riverflow and protect the town of Orick. The tallest groves are jewels set in their matrix of forest slopes and this surrounding forest is parkland in its own right. From the river flats of the very tallest trees to the magnificent slope-type redwoods and associated trees this valley is unmatched. The west flank suffers from logging wounds in places, yet the eastern slope is almost intact. Only this watershed can provide aesthetic, scientific, and recreational values so great. It is the valley basin itself that is such vital parkland. It is not simply the bottomland cathedral groves that qualify Redwood Creek Valley as the only adequate and significant Redwood National Park site left.

A mighty forest still rises on Redwood Creek, a last adequate stand of redwood verdure unmatched for beauty, height, extent, diversity, and cathedral sublimity. We are fortunate it is an American forest and it is up to us to decide now what becomes of it. We can protect this Sequoia mantle, or we let it be destroyed. We have little time

Redwood Creek Valley deserves to be our proud Redwood National Park before it too becomes a dismal battleground of ragged stumps and tractor-torn earth bisected by a muddy watercourse.

Was Anita Strom Really So Wrong?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Was Anita Strom such a bad school board member? Was she REALLY for "banning the books," against "Christmas Choir singing at San Rafael High School (in the halls)" against "High Times, a cooperative high school effort"??? I even heard it expressed, "We've got to get Strom."

Was she truly a victim of a most unChristianlike campaign where word meanings are subtly changed, and her reasons taken out of context?

If this is true, then I hang my head in shame for not taking the time to meet her, and hear her replies, and subsequently been able to answer her verbal accusers. How do you 55 per cent not voting people feel?

School board members donate much time. They are not paid. The education of our children into first class citizens is foremost in their minds. They all deserve our thanks, including Anita Strom.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Latin Traditions Bode Trouble For LBJ's Summit Declarations

BUENOS AIRES — In one short week skepticism has replaced hope for the lofty goals of the Latin American summit conference.

The commitments undertaken in the "Declaration of the Presidents of America" seemed unexceptionable, almost timid. But officials here are already questioning whether the summit rhetoric will ever be translated into action.

The principal difficulty is that the declaration was prepared by technicians, men converted to North American pragmatism, but must be carried out by politicians steeped in the antithetical traditions of Latin thought.

THE TECHNICIANS see the necessity for detailed, scientific planning, hard work, and self-help. But the politicians, despite much lip service, are inclined to disparage all this as hopelessly dismal and uninspiring.

The privileged classes, which remain dominant in Latin politics, are still absorbed by the notion that commerce and technology are not fit occupations for gentlemen.

The offstage whispers at the summit were revealing as to the aristocratic pretensions of the Latin leaders. Although President Johnson was on exceptionally good behavior, much was made of the fact that he slouched in his chair during private meetings, put on sunglasses during the public sessions, and jabbed at his colleagues for Texas-style emphasis.

One South American official took pleasure in the fact that the rich Latin ladies at the summit were a year ahead of the White House office girls in adopting the European fashions. It is a small point but indicative of a sense of social and cultural superiority.

THE LATINS tend to view U.S. power and prosperity less as the fruit of intelligence and hard work than as the result of circumstance and good luck. Accordingly, they are not much taken by U.S. lectures on the virtues of self-help.

This was reflected in the split between the technicians and the politicians at the summit. The technicians talked the new jargon of infrastructure, productivity, and modernization. But the politicians pursued the old line of aid and trade.

The technicians saw hope in a self-generated common market. The politicians insisted that their problems could be resolved only by more U.S. money and preferential treatment in the U.S. market.

Mr. Johnson appeased them with a number of minor concessions but pointed out that foreign aid, which accounts for only 2 per cent of the gross national product in Latin America, could not—even with unrealistic increases—have a profoundly energizing effect on the rest of the economy.

THE PRINCIPAL needs of Latin America are population control and agrarian reform. But the former was not even mentioned in the final declaration and the latter received only glancing recognition.

Latin America's impoverished, ill-fed population is increasing at the rate of 3.4 per cent a year, twice that of the United States.

It is expected to double by 1987 and reach 800 million by the turn of the century, as compared to an anticipated 300 million in the United States.

Ninety per cent of the arable land in Latin America remains in the hands of 10 per cent of the population. With few exceptions, notably Chile, little is being done about either problem.

UNLESS there is a radical change in mentality and priority, there is not much hope for President Johnson's "decade of urgency" and his "new America."

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Welfare Chief Has Surprising Position

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—John Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare expressed an almost unheard of view to a Senate Appropriations subcommittee. He declared that Congress had authorized more money than could be soundly used for education in impoverished areas.

Last year Congress authorized $2.4 billion for educational help to disadvantaged children. Gardner maintained that $1.2 billion is sufficient.

HE ALSO DISCLOSED that the Office of Economic Opportunity, which administers the anti-poverty program, will allocate $100 million for this in the next fiscal year.

HEW officials have decided against putting the national teachers corps into uniform. Instead, its participants are being encouraged to buy special pins or tie-clips with the letters NTC.

A HEW report to the House Labor Committee estimates that by the end of 1967, $400 million in loans will have been made to 480,000 college students. By 1972 loans are expected to total $6.5 billion.

OFFICE OF EDUCATION authorities are estimating that 170,000 new teachers will be needed in 1967 to replace uncertified teachers, fill vacancies and to meet rising student enrollments throughout the country. The officials say severe shortages exist in English, mathematics, science and elementary school teachers.

By 1975 the nation's schools will need nearly 2 million more teachers.

PREDICTIONS — Svetlana Alliluyeva, daughter of Stalin, will be admitted to the U.S. within a few months. She will be granted permanent residence here. Preparations for that are now underway.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson will come to Washington next month for a series of momentous talks with President Johnson and his top assistants . . .

Massachusetts Gov. John Volpe will join the growing number of Republican aspirants for second place on the 1968 ticket. Volpe has definitely decided to seek the vice presidential nomination . . .

LEGISLATION increasing Social Security benefits will not be enacted by July 1 — as sought by President Johnson. Congress will vote some boosts, but not as much as he recommended and not before well into summer.

Defense Secretary McNamara has dropped a financial bombshell into the lap of the Senate Military Appropriations Subcommittee.

IN TESTIFYING on the defense budget, he declared the government has a $74.1 billion unfunded liability to retired military personnel and those still in the service.

"I want to draw attention to the fact that the government has a liability of $74 billion, which has not been funded, for which Congress has appropriated no funds, and which has never appeared as a cost in the defense budget, but which we have incurred because of the service to date of military personnel."

"Is that obligation growing?" asked Senator J. Allen Ellender, D-La.

"That liability has increased about $30 billion in the past seven years," replied McNamara.

Giant Marincello Mall Hard To Envision For Only 20,000

Frouge Corporation's plan for two million square feet of retail sales and office space in Marincello seems out of kilter with the community's population of 20,000 persons by 1985.

Stonestown in San Francisco and Hillsdale on the Peninsula each have about one million square feet — and much more population than Marincello is supposed to have someday. (Unless, of course, the developer expects to accommodate a much higher population than provided in his master plan.)

FRESNO, WHICH serves a population of a half million persons, has three million square feet of retail sales and office space. Marin County is not expected to have a half million persons until 1990.

Principal feature of Marincello's commercial area is to be a 4,000 foot mall — only 200 feet shorter than the mall between Washington Monument and Lincoln Memorial. Tourists know what a long walk that is.

Washington's cold, wind, dampness and snow, of course, make the mall there seem longer than it is. It does not snow in Marincello.

Width of the mall will vary from 90 to 200 feet. Maximum width of the famed Fresno mal is 90 feet. It is 2,800 feet long.

Maintenance of fountains and pools running the entire length of the Marincello mall will be expensive, cautions Mill Valley City Engineer Stanley M. Bala. "It really will be something to maintain this much water," he says, "and if this were not maintained, it would really be a monument."

MILL VALLEY PLANNING Commission and a minority of the county planning commission objected the mall was grossly out of scale with topography and environment. Mill Valley city council, which recently included Marincello in a map of the area it hopes to annex someday, declined to take a stand on the mall. The council, among vigorous opponents of Marincello when it first was proposed, seems tired of the fight.

FIREWORKS ON the Fourth of July are one of the most popular American traditions, but Mill Valley apparently will be without them this year.

The recreation council (RECCO) has financed the fireworks for several years by holding fund-raising events and a weekend fair. Lack of community interest is reported to be the principal cause of RECCO's decision to cancel plans for fireworks this year. The pyrotechnics cost about $1,000, and RECCO is reluctant to foot the bill.

Unless community interest is aroused, local children and patriots will have to go elsewhere for the annual show.

RESIGNATION OF the color consultants for Mill Valley's proposed paint-up, clean-up campaign for commercial areas this week launched several searches for a scapegoat.

Charges flying around town that the campaign was sabotaged, however, overlook the fact that the campaign is the victim of indifference. The campaign was initiated by a few persons who, as was suspected from the beginning, incorrectly misread their enthusiasm for community enthusiasm.

The Chamber of Commerce consented to sponsor the campaign on the ground that the paint-up's ardent supporters deserved a chance to succeed. After several months, however, it was evident the campaign could not get off the ground.

IT IS POSSIBLE that supporters of the campaign may re-group and manage to pull it off. Now, at least, they know what they will be up against.

ART BUCHWALD

How Can Foreigner Understand The Rituals Of Income Tax Day?

WASHINGTON — One of the things I find myself doing all the time is explaining our American holidays to friends from abroad. The other day a French friend visiting Washington asked me, "Why does everyone in the United States keep talking about April 15?"

"That," I replied, "is known as Income Tax Day, although this year, because it fell on a weekend, we celebrated it on the 17th."

"Is it a religious holiday?" the Frenchman asked.

"Not exactly, though people pray a lot on it, and there is a good deal of wailing, breastbeating and shredding of clothes."

"HOW DID IT start?" the Frenchman wanted to know.

"No one is exactly sure. It's been with us as long as people can remember. While there are many Americans who would like to give it up, it's become so much a part of our lives that no one dares break with tradition."

"But what do you do on Income Tax Day?"

"You celebrate it by giving all the money you earned during the last year as a gift to the U. S. government."

"Then it's a happy day for the government?"

"Yes, it's a happy day for them, but there are no fireworks displays or anything like that. So many people have lost so much that the government feels it would be in bad taste to set off rockets."

"DO YOU HAVE any special foods that you eat on that day, such as you do on Thanksgiving?"

"What are some of the other traditions associated with the day?"

"Well, in many houses it's a time when the family gets together and the father gathers his wife and children around him and tells them they are spending too damn much money. The father says the wife is responsible for trying to live beyond their means, and the wife tells the father that he ought to try running the house on what he gives her. And then the kids start crying, and everyone becomes pretty emotional about the whole thing. It's a moving sight to see."

"Do the department stores have sales, as they do on Lincoln and Washington's birthday?"

"NO, BECAUSE no one has any money left for gas, much less to go to a sale."

"Suppose you don't believe in Income Tax Day and refuse to celebrate it. What happens then?"

"Nothing much. You can ignore it completely if you want to and go to jail instead."

"Are there many political speeches made on the holiday?"

"Not many. Politicians have always felt April 15 was a family holiday, that the less they were seen that day the happier the families would be."

"DO YOU HAVE anything like a Santa Claus?"

"Not really. There is a legend that at the stroke of midnight an Internal Revenue Service man comes down your chimney and plants a bug in your library. But only the children believe it."

"Does the Internal Revenue man ever leave any presents for the family?" the Frenchman asked.

"No, but sometimes he attaches your furniture."

"It sounds like a truly wonderful holiday, and I'm only sorry we don't have anything like it in France."

20 YEARS AGO

Marin County YMCA, several months in organization, became official with the board elected officers and selected Joseph T. Potts of San Anselmo as secretary.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration allocated $20,000 for purchase of land for a Marin Airport at Greenbrae.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Official May Have 'Good News Tonight'—But How Good Is It?

"Ah, we have good news tonight." This was the usual opening that famed Gabriel Heatter used for his nightly radio newscast. We heard that sonorous voice year after year along about dinner time. On nights when things weren't so good he would change it to, "Well we have sad news this evening."

Fusselman

Bruce was quoted in a news story last week as follows: "County Administrator Alan Bruce told the Board of Supervisors . . . that he expected to have a 'mildly cheerful budget' for the board by the end of the week. 'I believe,' he said, 'that this budget will allow the supervisors to do much of what they wish without increasing the tax load'."

NOW, LET'S CONSIDER a few things. In the I-J last Thursday: "Budget Up 11.5 Pct. . . . Bruce Predicts Smaller Property Tax Increase . . . A county budget for next fiscal year totaling $28,314,617, up 11.5 per cent over the current year will be recommended to Marin supervisors . . . he said that the demand on county taxes will increase by the same percentage, but with anticipated assessment increases and carry over funds, he believes the tax rate can remain close to the present $2.295 per $100 valuation."

And again further on the story had this: "Bruce said the proposed library increase could again be covered, 'without substantial change in the tax rate' through assessment increases."

WHAT A RACKET! When assessments are increased and the same rate is used as before, you pay more dollars. He should know better than to try to put one like that over.

On June 17 last year I started the column . . . " 'Something Is Wring Somewhere'. So says the administrator and that 'Property taxation is reaching a prohibitive level'."

I WENT ON to say, "Now isn't that news? You are paying $135,603 plus for this choice bit of information." He was then asking $171,873 for his three departments which I compared with $94,125 for the year ending June 30, 1964.

And of course he has been adding continually to his departments since last year.

The budget in '63-'64 was $16,662,689 . . . in '64-'65, $21,261,036; in '65-'66, $24,677,297, and last year $25,463,692. Now he is submitting one for $28,314,617. You see when an increase is expressed in percentage it doesn't seem quite so much . . . Since 1963-'64 it has gone up $11,652,128.

I WONDER what the old boy would use as his opening line today were he broadcasting for us here?

My! my! isn't it too bad the board got into the rumble about the Point Reyes Seashore money on Tuesday? And right after they got such a nice plug in a letter to the editor . . . "It was rewarding to sit and observe them in action . . . each member listening attentively . . . then expressing their reaction and recommendation and finally together arriving at a reasonable and prudent solution."

Labor Council Endorses LBJ Pension Ideas

The Marin Labor Council announced yesterday that it endorses President Johnson's recommendation that Social Security benefits be raised to insure "that every elderly citizen has an adequate income and a meaningful retirement."

Secretary-treasurer James Smith said the council is circulating petitions among Marin labor groups to be forwarded to legislators in Washington urging enactment of the President's suggestion.

On Jan. 23, President Johnson asked Congress for increases of 15 to 59 per cent in benefits, which would guarantee a minimum of $70 a month to individuals and $105 to married couples. The President estimated the cost of the increases at $4.1 billion the first year.

Smith said 13 European nations now surpass the United States in welfare assistance to the elderly and said, "This country can well afford to provide a better standard of living for its 2.5 million retired persons."

The council's endorsement was adopted at its Tuesday meeting. At the same time, it was announced that Smith has been appointed to the board of directors of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council.

Another Seeks Land

The Tamalpais Fire District yesterday applied to the Marin Local Agency Formation Commission for approval of annexing 52.8 acres of the Dias Ranch west of Mill Valley. The Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District has requested approval for annexation of the same territory.

Any Muir Woods Swap Is Opposed

I-J Special Report

WASHINGTON — Muir Woods National Monument in Marin County must not be included in any land swap deal between the federal and state governments, Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, Calif., declared yesterday.

In current hearings on creation of a Redwood National Park, Muir Woods has been mentioned as one of the federal parcels the state might receive in exchange for state land.

"I am strongly opposed to the federal government's release of Muir Woods," said Clausen. "It should definitely remain a national monument."

Marin's License Shares Announced

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — State Controller Houston I. Flournoy has announced distribution of $128,344,858 to cities and counties as an advance payment of 75 per cent of their share of motor vehicle license fees collected during this year's registration period.

This total included $643,369 for Marin County. Apportionments to cities in the county included: Belvedere, $11,698; Corte Madera, $36,893; Fairfax, $33,181; Larkspur, $37,118; Mill Valley, $53,765; Novato, $130,026; Ross, $12,454; San Anselmo, $59,164; San Rafael, $153,872; Sausalito, $30,144; and Tiburon, $27,400.

Spaghetti Dinner

This year's annual spaghetti dinner for men only held by Wilkins Post 37, American Legion, is scheduled for Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Blessed Sacrament Social Hall in Santa Venetia.

PLASTIC PLAYGROUND

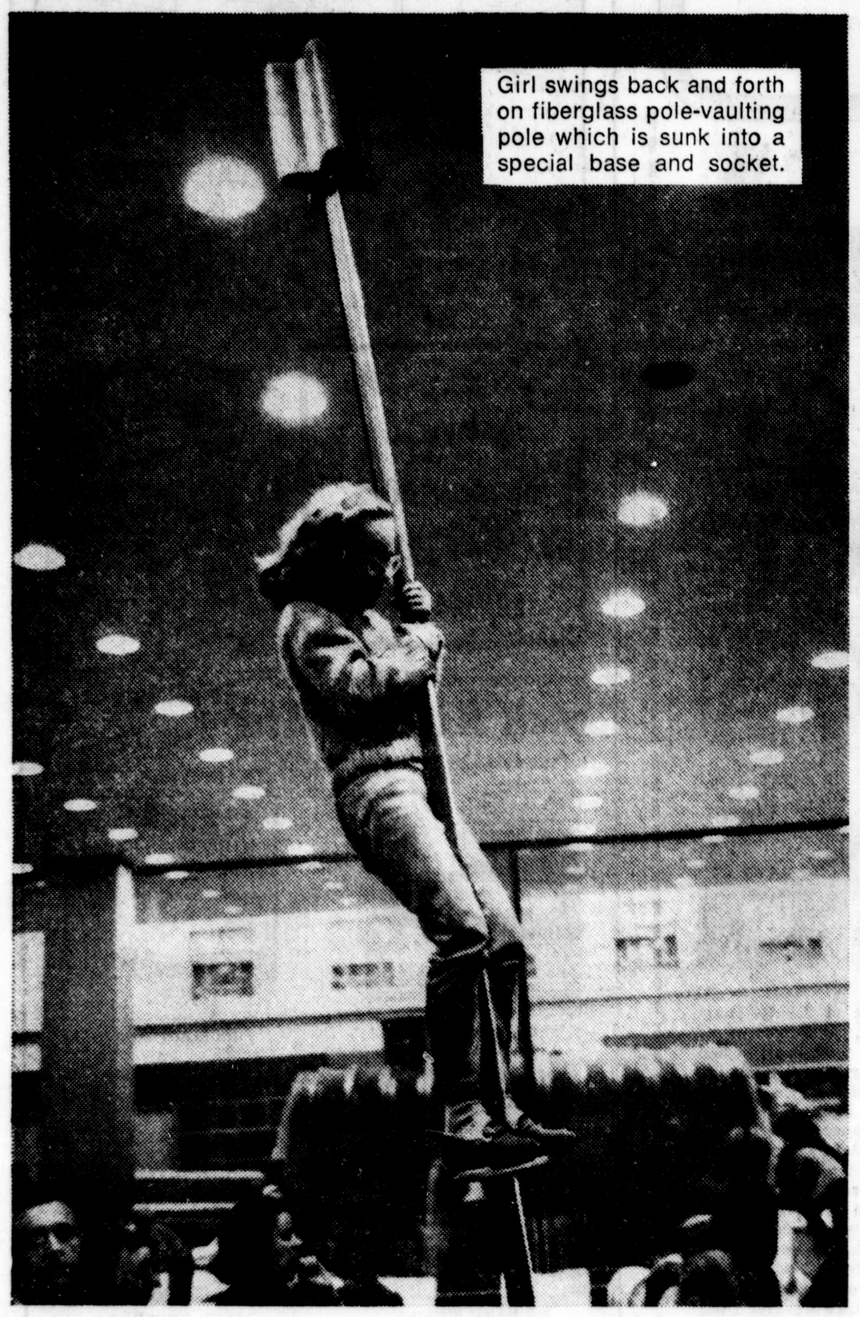

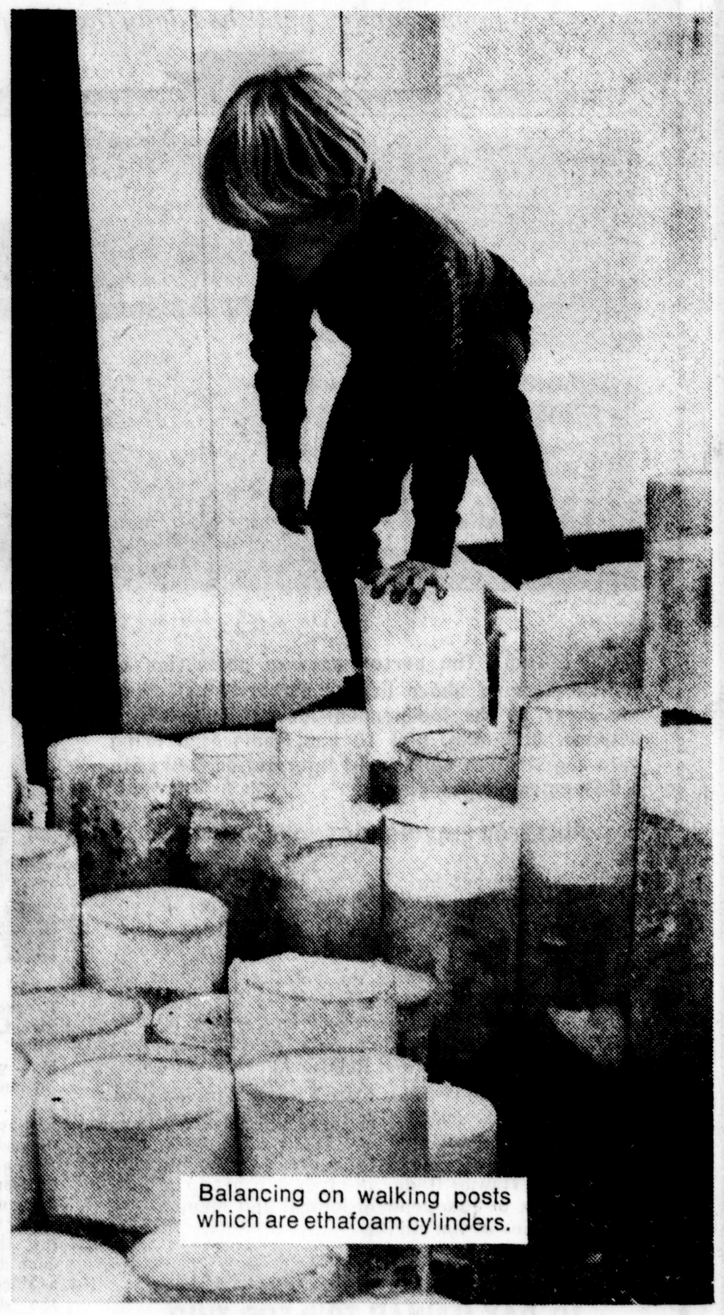

A see-saw that needs only one child to operate without another child as counterbalance—a radome identical to those used in aeronautics is converted into a playhouse—a Fiberglas tank made for storing chemicals is a play structure—and polyethylene jet engine covers are sand boxes.

Thus industry and imagination are combined to provide "Playscape", an attempt to bring diverse products of modern chemistry to children in an updated play environment. Manufacturers contributed the products normally made for non-play industrial uses. The imagination was provided by designer Jerry Lieberman. Because the basic components have been adapted from existing industrial products, they are both inexpensive and easily replaceable. "Playscape" has been designed to be flexible for any space and play situation, from park to school to recreation area or one's own backyard. Children are seen enjoying the experimental playground set up in the Pepsi-Cola Exhibition Gallery in New York City.

Speakers Differ On Federal Control Needs In Education

Controls exercised by the federal government over public education were both criticized and defended last night when a member of the state educational executive branch clashed with a member of the state legislative branch.

In most other matters, there was more agreement than disagreement between Dr. Everett T. Calvert, deputy state superintendent of public instruction, and Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan, D-South San Francisco, in a debate sponsored by the Coordinating Council of Dixie School District in Vallecito School.

FEDERAL CONTROL

Speaking on "Support and Control of Public Education," Calvert called federal polictical control "the greatest danger to our education today" and said it usually followed the dollar sign.

There are so many direct programs negotiated between Washington and city education officials, Dr. Calvert said, it is impossible for his office to be aware of them all to insure they don't overlap.

Ryan said the increase of money from federal sources "is regrettable" but gave what he considered to be the reasons.

In many parts of the United States, there were schools so bad it was impossible to get a decent education, he said, and the federal government had to step in with money with conditions so attractive it could not be refused.

"As legislation covers all 52 states, California — which has a more sophisticated style in the way it puts money to use — has found itself the victim of this kind of funding. I do not say it is a good thing," said Ryan.

Both speakers agreed it was a decision made in Russia 10 years ago that started the whole ball rolling.

When Sputnik I headed for outer space, it started a wave of fear that the United States was falling behind Russia in technical and academic education. The result was more money fanning out from Washington, they said.

CLASS REDUCTION

Calvert considered the control that went with the cash unjustified. In 10 years, he said, nuclear physics education has improved but not one of the scientists involved in the country's space program has passed through a public school in that time.

Ryan considered it would be more beneficial for schools to put their "many thousands" of aid dollars to use reducing class numbers instead of buying audio and visual aid equipment.

We are losing the quality race because we have been forced to develop a system so rapidly. Next fall, there will be almost five million children in California public schools. We build the schools so fast all we want to do is to get the children inside and sat down," said Ryan.

SPEAKERS DIFFER

The speakers differed on the need for achievement tests. Dr. Calvert said it was foolish to set one type of written test for all subjects. A system for accreditation is better, he said.

Replied Ryan: "We have to have some standards to judge if our children are doing well or not. Accreditation is not independent enough, and in any case California is too large a state."

To a complaint from Calvert that too many subjects were being made mandatory without the money being provided, Ryan answered: "There is a new breed in Sacramento and you will be finding fewer mandated programs in the future."

Honor Students Will Be Feted

Sir Francis Drake High School life members of the California Scholarship Federation and Honor Crew will be honored guests at an Acadmeic Booster Committee-sponsored dinner April 27 at 7 p.m. in Alexander Hall of San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Critic John Wasserman of the San Francisco Chronicle, speaking on "The Intelligent Man and Entertainment," will be guest speaker.

Jail Term, Fine On Drunken Driving

Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. of Marin Municipal Court yesterday gave Robert Jansen Truitt of 3 Gordon Street, Sausalito, a 90-day county jail term and fined him $289 for drunken driving with a prior conviction.

He also placed Truitt on three years probation. Truitt was found guilty by a jury March 16 of drunken driving on Bridgeway in Sausalito last Dec. 19. Leonard Shaw, assistant district attorney, prosecuted. A. Leonard Bjorklund represented Truitt.

Personnel Board Rejects Employee Pre-Conferences

The Marin County Personnel Commission yesterday turned down the request of the Marin County Employees' Association for pre-conferences on personnel recommendations.

Employee Association manager Frederick Ward asked that he be given a chance to review recommendations with County Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott before the recommendations go to the commission or supervisors. The commission denied the request but urged Elliott and Ward to "exchange information" on matters of mutual interest.

The commission agreed there is no need for further discussion of Ward's suggestion that commissioners receive per diem pay. Chairman Margaret Lucas and Commissioner Victor Reed have both told supervisors they oppose the idea.

The commission agreed that employment and examination procedures should be incorporated in the personnel rules and regulations, now being revised.

Commissioner Hugh Marchant was absent.

In Good Condition

Nicholas Mogo, 14 of 9 Harvard Drive, Larkspur, was in good condition today at Marin General Hospital, where he was taken by ambulance yesterday at 9:15 p.m. when he complained of chest pains after a fall at his home.

Radio Panel Worries Over Mental Cuts

Marin County taxpayers and mental health patients will all be burdened should Gov. Ronald Reagan's proposed cutbacks in mental health facilities go into effect, according to speakers on yesterday's Radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board."

At present the state bears 75 per cent of the cost of mental health services, with the rest locally supplied, said Dr. Clyde Milier, director of Marin County Mental Health Services.

Cutbacks would end Mendocino's State Hospital's alcoholic treatment program, said Ernest W. Klatte, hospital superintendent.

Napa State Hospital, which would lose 181 of its staff by next July and another 180 by July, 1968, would not be able to take patients from Mendocino hospital, said senior psychiatrist Laondi Thompson.

Alcoholics would be turned into overcrowded jails and into the streets, he contended. Treatment would be reduced to new low levels and most patients would get custodial service instead of treatment.

Hospitals are on 1952 standards now, claimed Mrs. Larry B. Mishkind, president of Marin Mental Health Association. She described a visit to what Governor Reagan termed "the biggest hotel chain in the state."

Three technicians had a ward of 90 patients; they had to spoonfeed some patients, bathe them thrice weekly in a concrete room with three showerheads, she related.

Patients had one-foot cubicles for their belongings in some cases, small bedside tables in others, said Mrs. Mishkind. The staff worked for eight hours without break, and morale was low.

The discussion will be rebroadcast Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

School Literary Magazine Named

Gyre and Gimble is the name of a new Tamalpais High School District literary magazine to be distributed at the district's three high schools in mid-May.

It isn't really a magazine, explained Marilyn Cohn, Redwood High School senior who heads it, but a protofolio of 20 poems on 3-by-5 inch cards.

It was started by some Redwood students who were rejected as staff members of the school's literary magazine, Orpheus.

Profits (if any) from sale of the portfolios are to be divided among the three schools.

The student poets have no fear that their production will make moms wrath outgrabe.

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Are you a woman over the usual college age who would love to start or continue your college education but just can't face all the problems involved?

Like — how you can find the time and money, especially if you have children — whether you can adjust to the young people — how they and the instructors would react to you — and would it be worth the effort in terms of opportunities opened.

If you are one of those considering a return to school, you are one of many, for according to Dr. Margaret Duncan Greene, counselor at the College of Marin, she gets at least one call a day asking, "Is there a place for me?"

She has, in fact, become an unofficial information center for women generally interested in returning to college but not necessarily planning to attend the College of Marin.

More than 100 such women are enrolled at the College of Marin, and it was very interesting to talk with Dr. Greene about them and with a group of about 12 who get together as a lunch club on Wednesdays to talk over their common problems over coffee and sandwiches.

The club was started two years ago by one student, Mrs. Vlado Kolitsch of San Rafael, a psychology major and participant in the work-study program which permits students to earn while learning.

FIRST, AND most important of the questions women face when contemplating return to books and classes is "is it worth while?" Very much so, Dr. Greene believes.

"The big potential in Marin," she says, "is the women with ability and ideas who should become productive. Times, methods and standards have changed, and the fields of teaching and social work especially are wide open. Age can be an asset, and married women customarily make an excellent adjustment. Our older women do very well with grades."

For mature women whose families are grown, Dr. Greene pointed out, taking college courses opens up a whole new world either for pursuing a career or just for developing new interests.

"A junior college has many advantages for these women," she said. "It is close to home with resulting saving of time and money since tuition is free, and the only expenses are books. Also it gives them an opportunity to regain or acquire skills under more individual attention in smaller classes than they would get in the large, impersonal and competitive classes in the great universities. It is also easier to experiment in junior colleges in various areas without too heavy an investment."

"IN MOST CASES HUSBANDS see a new interest and liveliness in their wives and can't help respecting their achievements, and children enjoy watching their mothers do homework and study for exams," she noted. "This is reported constantly."

The important thing for women considering this step, Dr. Greene advised, is to begin by taking only two or three courses before undertaking a full program, or even by taking advantage of the adult education non-credit offerings.

For those having financial difficulties there is a work-study program, she said, which permits a woman to do work in the college, such as assisting professors with clerical tasks, or in the community in part-time jobs of many kinds that pay from $1.50 to $2.25 an hour.

DR. GREEN'S statements were confirmed and emphasized in the talks over coffee and sandwiches and also later in the four individual interviews.

The women ranged in age from about 30 upward and were from families having none to five children and several grandchildren. Some were just starting college — others had degrees, one even a master's degree — and their reasons for becoming students varied widely.

Most were interested in professional careers in social welfare or teaching at all levels from nursery school through higher education. Incentives were listed from need to become the breadwinner of the family, through desire to supplement income for children's education to necessity of bringing qualifications up to date before resuming careers.

Also mentioned were "a love affair with learning and insatiable curiosity" and ambition "to keep up with the kids' cultural and educational levels."

Mostly they said that their home and families come first in case of a conflict or competition for time, but apparently a few put school first and let household chores get done as best they can.

The four women interviewed were Mrs. Charles Mayer of Mill Valley, Mrs. James Park of San Quentin, Mrs. L. Joseph Brown of Lucas Valley and Miss Deanna Brown of San Rafael.

SALLY MAYER, mother of three children who is now working on a master's degree in sociology at San Francisco State College, is primarily interested in doing research on social change in Marin, the subject of her thesis. Having been graduated from the College of Marin, she had some interesting comments about life as a student there.

"When I first went back to college, I felt I stuck out like a sore thumb," she said, "but after a while I felt I was just a student like everybody else. We all had the same problems. I got so much out of classes that when I got home and had all the chores to do, I didn't mind.

"You know the College of Marin ranks very high among junior colleges in the state. You get excellent teaching there and the interest of the teacher himself. If you go to a four-year college, you get the teaching assistants and no depth of understanding. When you do go to a four-year institution after attending a junior college, you know how to study."

FOR WOMEN THINKING about going back to school Sally Mayer had this advice.

"Don't wait until children are in their teens to start," she urged. "A program can be arranged so that you leave after they go to school and are home before they are. By the time they are in the teens and interested in their own affairs, you will have a lot of accomplishments behind you, and you don't have to hold onto your children. Momism is gone. You don't need it. Women have a tendency to give their whole selves to their children, but they don't have a right to expect anything in return.

"You can begin slowly — any woman who can manage an hour or two a day should go to college. There's no satisfaction like it. Women are changing the structure of society today."

BETTY PARK, wife of the assistant warden at San Quentin and mother of three boys, became interested in teaching as a result of teaching Sunday school. After graduating in June she plans to go on to San Francisco State College and prepare for work in the Sausalito teacher education program, and eventually to become a primary grade teacher.

"The value of going back to school is expanding horizons and ideas," she declared. "It takes total cooperation from the family, however. You have to do a lot of organizing. My husband has been a great help and encouragement, and now he is so much interested in my work he even reads my textbooks.

"I had a fear of competing with the kids, but it's not like competing with your own children, and they don't look at you as a mother figure. You are accepted as a fellow student."

LAURA BROWN, wife of major at Hamilton Air Force Base and mother of four children, is apparently one of those superwomen one hears about. Very ambitious, she has always been highly organized, managing during travels with her husband in North Africa to learn something about reading and writing Arabic as well as Libyan and Egyptian cooking.

A handsome Negro woman, she learned to do non-professional modeling and taught basic grooming for the 1965 Hamilton Debutante Ball.

"I had always been interested in science and mathematics," she said, but my husband likes a woman to be in the home. I had to throw a tantrum before he finally said I could attend college if it didn't interfere with our children or home and social life. You see, I do a lot of entertaining too.

"WHAT MANY WOMEN accomplish by 1 p.m. I have done by 8 a.m. My husband is satisfied because I toe the mark, and I wouldn't have it any other way. My children cooperate and are proud of my going to school, and I'm more enthusiastic about what they are learning.

"I want to go on and get my master's degree so that I can teach higher mathematics."

Unmarried, Deanna Brown has been on her own since she was 17 and helps pay her expenses by participating in the work-study program as a teacher's aide at the Richardson Bay School in Sausalito.

After one semester at the University of Oregon she had worked all over the country in a long series of jobs such as cook, car hop, cocktail waitress, manager of a pet store at one time and of a small restaurant at another.

"I finally realized I wasn't doing anything with my life and decided to go back to school in February last year," she said. I wouldn't have been able to if it hadn't been for the junior college, where I can work and study at the same time.

"I had to force myself to study, but my biggest hurdle was learning to relate to the younger students, although they accepted me. Now I get along fine. I'm majoring in physical education and minoring in speech, and I love teaching. I intend to get my degree in physical education and my teaching credentials."

SPRING BLOOMS INDOORS

Floral arrangements and specimen plants were shown at the Sausalito Woman's Club "Fantasia" spring flower show, boutique and tea yesterday afternoon. Admiring the dried arrangement in greens, yellow and orange of Mrs. Edwin Long are Mrs. John Churchill, left, and Mrs. Merrell Sisson. Center is Mrs. Howard Shapiro's small bouquet of yellow rosebuds and violas and right is Mrs. Jackson Perry's arrangement. Mrs. Churchill won first for her flower arrangement and Mrs. Sisson won first in the specimen plant category. (Independent-Journal photo)

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

If It All Continues, She Has Won Back Man, Not Impetuous Boy

About two years ago my husband ran off to California with a married woman, after cleaning out all our finances. He came back three weeks later, begged forgiveness, but said it was partially my fault because he wanted to buy a truck and I wouldn't let him, which made him depressed. At the psychological moment, he said, he ran into this woman at a bar, she was having husband troubles, so they decided to cry on each other's shoulders, all the way to California.

I took him back. But a year later I found out he had been seeing this same woman and had even bought her an expensive television set, while he only gave me a can opener for Christmas.

Again he was all apologies and claims he was just trying to play the big shot to impress her with how well he was doing. Well, this time I didn't let him come back.

It's been three months and he has in no way been mean or spiteful. In fact, he's nicer to me and the children than he's ever been.

Shall I take him back, or not take any more chances? It's rough raising three children alone, but I can't seem to churn up any trust or respect for him.

WAITING WIFE

DEAR WW:

When in doubt, wait. You're doing better than you have in years, what with an attentive husband, a loving father for your children, chores all caught up, and even a bit of romantic wooing on the side. If all this continues three more months, I'd say your husband has learned his lesson and you can welcome back a man instead of an impetuous boy. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

This is a letter of protest. Why must there be so much prejudice in California and Oregon against the "Okies, Arkies" and the "Tacky Texans."

I'm regarded as "tainted" because my grandparents homesteaded in Oklahoma. What bothers me is that those who left the South long ago have buried their secret and now add to the propaganda against the Oakies, etc. They make the most bad jokes of all.

People out West imagine all of my people are illiterate, with the young girls already married and weighted down with shoeless children while they drag around in peasant dresses, barefooted. They're so wrong!

They forget it was Californians in their search for cheap farm labor who lured the Okies, Arkies and Texans out here during the depression. These southerners were too proud to stay at home and take relief so they became the modern pioneers. That they were reduced to poverty often was due to their believing the other fellow was as honest as they were. They were sneered at, exploited, cheated, and some still are. For a nation who learned to love Will Rogers, it's amazing what they think of people who came from his State. — GUILTY BY ASSOCIATION

DEAR GBA:

Aren't you a mite touchy? Some of my best friends are transplanted Okies, Arkies and Texans and they're proud of their titles.— H.

DEAR HELEN:

I never dreamed my husband would do this. He has been taking money out of his pay. He cashes his money before he comes home and I never questioned the amount he said he makes because I trusted him. Then I found out what his pay is. Last week he took out $20.

I thought it was funny he hadn't got a pay raise for over a year, and this is why.

I work too and we pool our money for bills, savings, etc. I thought I knew where everything went. He's always been so good about accounting for everything.

But last week I found a whole wad of bills in his dresser drawer. Is this any way to treat me after 19 years of marriage? — ELLIE

P.S. Should I take the money and put it in our savings account?

DEAR ELLIE:

. . . And do yourself out of a lovely "surprise" birthday or Christmas present?

For heaven's sakes, where's your trust? If a man has been an honest, dependable, straight-shooting husband for 19 years, he deserves a wife who is aware of it. — H.

Leslie Steele Will Marry Charles Wiecek In August

Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Steele of Greenbrae are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Leslie Helen, to Charles Salvatore Wiecek.

The bride-elect, who is the sister of Linda Steele of Los Angeles, was graduated from Milliken University in Decatur, Ill., and is a graduate student at Northern Illinois University in De Kalb, Ill. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Emerson of Alameda.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiecek of Chicago, was graduated from Northern Illinois University and will receive his master's degree from that school in August.

Beta Sigma Phi Council Will Mark Founders Day

The Marin County chapters of Beta Sigma Phi will celebrate the 36th anniversary of the organization's founding on Tuesday at 8:15 p.m.

A banquet in which the six local chapters will join for the occasion will be held at Maple Lawn, San Rafael. Thirty-five years ago, the first chapter of the sorority was formed in Abilene, Kan.

In addition to the banquet, traditional ceremonies will be observed. At 6:30 p.m., preceding the banquet, the following pledges will be presented the Ritual of Jewels degree: Mesdames Michael Carter, Joseph Henderson and Jack Kennedy of Gamma Omicron Chapter, San Rafael; Walter Johnson, Thomas Peterson, Peter Belden and Miss Bonilynn Adami of Omicron Alpha Chapter, Mill Valley; Larry Eman, Harry Rupp, Leonard Bergseth, Gilbert Boza, Calvin Penrod and Jerry Thomas of Upsilon Gamma Chapter, Novato.

Mrs. Robert Haluska, Marin Inter-City Council president, will officiate at the ritual, assisted by chapter vice presidents, Mesdames Al Sims of Novato, Sheldon Schwebel of Corte Madera, and Gary Wallace of Hamilton Air Force Base.

Mrs. H. W. Meyerinck Jr. is serving as chairman of the founders day banquet. Special guest will be Northern California Council president Mrs. Ed Leatherbury, a member of Preceptor Sigma Chapter, San Jose, who will also assist at the ritual.

Other honored guests are Dorothy Newell and Patricia Zinn of the Independent-Journal, who will judge scrapbook awards along with Mrs. Peter Regalia, sorority sponsor.

Mrs. James Petricka will present a special message from the sorority's founder, Walter W. Ross from international headquarters, Kansas City, Mo. Other members who will have a part in the program are Mesdames Robert Haluska, opening ritual; Tom Deal, invocation; Meyerinck, welcome; Gary Condry, founders day pledge; Leo Benelli, "Council Year;" Robert Ground "Girl of the Year" awards; Steve Tyler, scrapbook awards.

MRS. H. W. MEYERINCK Jr., right, chairman for the Marin Inter-City Council of Beta Sigma Phi Founders Day Banquet, reviews the Ritual of Jewels Degree ceremony which pledge Mrs. Thomas Peterson will take at the banquet to be held on Tuesday at the Elks Club, San Rafael.

Traveling In Oriental Style

By MOLLY MARIN

An exciting trip to Japan and Taiwan aboard a 75-passenger Chinese cargo liner is reported by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Roth, who have just returned to Mill Valley. En route they were given lessons in simple Chinese and in Chinese cooking by some of the all-Chinese crew.

The Roths left March 23, taking 14 days to reach Yokohama after a very rough voyage. Avid train enthusiasts, they made a land tour through Japan by car and train, including a ride from Odawara to Kyoto on the famed "Japanese Bullet" which travels 125 miles an hour.

Highlight was their stay at the Fujiya Hotel with its acres of gardens in the mountains at Hakone. Other places they visited were Nikko and Kobe, where they boarded a ship for Keelung and then took another for Taipei, the capital of Taiwan. After a trip through the Toroko Gorge, which was one of their most memorable experiences in Taiwan, they went by ship to Kaohsiung and then on to Hong Kong, where they left by plane for home.

A FAMILY BARBECUE at 5 p.m. Sunday at the Belvedere Tennis Club will conclude the mixed doubles tournament which began Saturday. Trophies for both the mixed doubles tournament and a previously held round robin tournament will be awarded.

Mrs. Kenneth Wells is barbecue chairman; Mesdames Phillip West, Frederic Supple, Jack Himmelwright, Ralph McGill, Lucia Towne and Chester Bunnell are committee members.

MESDAMES WALLACE SCOTT and Fred Herrington are entertaining at tea this afternoon at the Scott home on the Belvedere Lagoon. Past presidents, among the 200 guests who are members of the Northgate Group of the Marin Art and Garden Center, will be Mesdames Wallace Hickman, John Kirkpatrick, Curtis Knowles, John Merryman, Andrew Halley, Edward Ruff, LeRoy Page, Melvin Duncan and Harvey M. Freed.

COUNTY SUPERVISOR and Mrs. William Gnoss and Mrs. Rose Beggs of Novato are leaving Wednesday for a two week tour of the Hawaiian Islands. They will visit all the islands in a tour sponsored by the California Farm Bureau. This will be the Gnoss' first trip to the islands and they will visit various farms and floral gardens.

SUSAN MARIE is the name which the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keller of Tiburon will receive at christening services at St. Hilary's Church later this month. The baby is the seventh child in the Keller household. She is the sister of Bob, Barbara, Mary, Nancy, Jimmy and Cathy Keller.

MR. AND MRS. M. E. BABE SILVA and their son Michael of Novato spent the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. Ray H. Kistler of San Francisco at the Kistler's country home in Sonora.

BUSY WITH the annual wine tasting festival for the International Hospitality Center is Mrs. Richard C. Otter of Sausalito, the chairman. The event will be given Wednesday evening at the M. H. de Young Museum in San Francisco for members and friends.

Stephenson-Gardner Nuptials In Escalon

Elena Diane Gardner became the bride of Grant Cooper Stephenson of Larkspur in a 7 p.m. ceremony on Saturday at the Escalon Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Schwenck and Rev. Russell Chandler, former pastor of the church.

MRS. GRANT STEPHENSON

The benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stephenson of Larkspur, and his bride, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Gardner of Ripon left on a Hawaiian honeymoon.

They will return from their wedding trip to reside in Reno, where the new Mrs. Stephenson plans to attend University of Nevada and her husband is a salesman for IBM.

Mrs. Fred Sutherland, sister of the bride, flew in from Biloxi, Miss., to be matron of honor. She and the other attendants wore ankle length gowns of powder blue chiffon.

Ann Lundquist of Escalon was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Darlene Van Over and Chris Silveira of Escalon and Lois Lagier of Ripon.

Parker C. Stephenson, of Weed was best man for his brother. Ushers were James Salber of Berkeley, Brian Gates of Reno, John J. Quinn of Merced and Robert Betette Jr. of Corte Madera.

$2.4 Million Price Tag On Sausalito Plan

Public acquisition and development of Sausalito's waterfront would cost a maximum of $2.4 million, the city's "701" planning consultant told planning commissioners last night in a review of the proposed general waterfront plan.

Up to two-thirds of the cost could be financed through federal open space grants, suggested the consultant, William E. Spangle Jr. His estimate anticipated purchase of 30.8 acres, mostly owned by Sausalito Properties Inc., which has a 40-acre holding.

Minimum public development and maximum private development of the waterfront, he said would require expenditure of public funds totaling $900,000. If the city wants to keep its waterfront open for public use, it will have to buy it "rather immediately," Spangle had said previously.

A "ball park" estimate of $2.5 million for maximum public development was made last August by George Mader, a planner with Spangle and Associates.

E. Elmore Hutchison, president of Sausalito Properties, said his firm would negotiate with the city to provide public access to the bay if its property is privately developed. Spangle's "minimum" plan for public development calls for a 9.9-acre bayside park on Sausalito Properties' holding, most of which is submerged tideland.

Sausalito Citizens Council, in a letter to the commission, objected that the plan called for "too much potential expenditure of public monies," and should provide for extension north of Humboldt Street.

"The hard fact," commented commission Chairman Alan D. Bonapart, "is that the more we want to preserve those things about Sausalito that caused us to come here in the first place, the more planning and the more expenditure of public funds are going to be necessary."

Development of Humboldt, he noted, was not recommended by the planning consultants because it was unnecessary and very expensive.

The commission set a public hearing May 24 at 8 p.m. in City Hall on proposed revisions to the general plan.

Commissioner Roy Starbird was absent.

. . . WITH LOVING CARE

Volunteer workers carefully lifted a 30-foot Douglas fir tree out of its longtime location at 714 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, yesterday and hauled it to the Civic Center, where it was as carefully planted just north of the Hall of Justice wing which is now under construction. The tree was to be cut down to make way for a parking lot. Margaret McFarland of San Rafael sparked the volunteer effort which, with some county financial assistance, transplanted it to be the county's "Christmas tree."

Our Youth Think They Know All About Drugs

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

LSD and marijuana "are California problems," and as things stand now, adolescents think they know more about them than their teachers — and sometimes do.

These messages were given Marin school administrators, counselors and teachers who packed the Ross General Hospital dining room last night for a workshop on LSD and other hallucinogenic drugs arranged by the hospital.

CALIFORNIA PROBLEM

The California nature of the problem was pointed up by Dr. William M. Lamers, Kentfield psychiatrist. He related that two weeks ago in Minnesota, he addressed a crowd of about the same size. "I asked who in the audience knew someone who had used marijuana or LSD," he said. "One hand was raised — a girl who knew a man who had been in state prison."

Another psychiatrist, Dr. William J. Dickerson of San Anselmo, told the educators: "The ones who feel they know a great deal about drugs are the students. I am impressed by both their knowledge and their misinformation."

DOUBT TEACHERS

They are not impressed, he said, by the false and out-dated information about drugs sometimes given them by uninformed teachers.

Dr. John C. Siemens, administrator of the hospital who moderated the discussion, noted the newness of the LSD problem. Only in the past six months has Ross Hospital had experience in dealing with effects of hallucinogenic drugs, he said.

One youth he saw took LSD three times. The first and second times, he tried suicide. The third time, he went berserk and had to be sent to Napa State Hospital.

Another youth had taken LSD more than 200 times, and seemed "sharp, cool, and pretty well oriented. But he apparently knew something was wrong — he came to see a psychiatrist."

A youth of 17, he saw this week had "a bad trip" a month ago on LSD and mescaline, a "pep pill" type of hallucinogenic drug.For a week or 10 days after his "trip," this 17-year-old insisted on sleeping in the same bed with his parents. In the month, "he has not left the side of his father."

'JUST ONE TIME'

One youth took LSD 113 times. He enjoyed his first 112 trips. On the 113th, he became psychotic His comment later was, "If only I had taken it just one time!"

Dr. Joseph P. Gutstadt, San Rafael psychiatrist, added another case: an LSD user who "would go up again" at mere mention of LSD long after "taking a trip." He and other psychiatrists — Doctors Lamers, Dickerson, and Thomas P. Lowry of Kentfield — emphasized that there is no certain knowledge of how anyone may react to hallucinatory drugs, and that the effects of such a potent one as LSD may recur months after the "trip."

A dissenting voice to all this was raised by Neil Abercrombie, a county probation officer, who claimed that laws against drug use are at fault, that the harm LSD and marijuana do is overemphasized, and there should not be punishment for their possession or use.

The punishment is heavy under the law, particularly for second offenders, Dist. Atty Bruce B. Bales noted. Although the first offense is a misdemeanor, the second is a felony punishable by up to 10 years in prison.

The many questions fom the audience of educators included only one about what the schools' role should be. Someone asked at what point in a child's education instruction the dangers of drugs should be introduced.

Dr. Lamers suggested "broadening of family life education" with "an over-all course in majority." Dr. Lowry agreed, and said the instruction should be through all grades.

Dr. Gutstadt suggested the most telling instruction usually arises from spontaneous discussion which can occur in any class. "Familiarize yourself with the subject" to be able to take advantage of this, he advised the teachers.

Albert H. Angelini, Ross Hospital pharmacy director, gave a chemical explanation of the hallucinogenic drugs — which start with marijuana and proceed through such diverse drugs as epinephrin, amphetamine, benzadrine and peyote to LSD — to open the discussion.

Welfare Change Good, Supervisors Assured

By ROBERT STREBEIGH

Welfare departments throughout the country are rapidly changing from mere distributors of dole to providers of social services.

That change and the mechanism to bring it about were unanimously welcomed today by welfare directors of three counties in addresses to the North Coast Counties Supervisors Association, meeting at the Tiburon Lodge in Tiburon.

The welfare department directors, describing the change and its implications for county government, were Betty L. Presley of Marin, David Sweeney of Sonoma, and Kenneth Bryan, speaking for Director Ronald Born in San Francisco.

FEDERAL ROLE

All three agreed that the federal government should and would eventually take over distribution of money to guarantee a decent standard of living for all citizens.

This, they told the supervisors, would leave county welfare departments free to offer services to the aged, the blind, the mentally retarded, dependent children, and others in socially distressing circumstances.

Miss Presley welcomed the change because, she said, present distribution of welfare aid "is designed not only to support the poor, but to punish them."

The widely discussed guaranteed income theory or some similar mechansim, the welfare directors agreed, would serve to remove the stigma now attached to receiving aid.

SERVICE, NOT DOLE

The welfare experts anticipated vastly increased need for social services, apart from dole, in an era where more goods are turned out with less labor but where work — still the measure of a man's worth — may become the privilege of a few.

The three felt the counties would retain a vital role in providing social services, since no over-all state or federal, program would take care of diverse county needs.

This, Miss Presley said, means that supervisors must "become as concerned with human services as with roads and buildings." Supervisors, she said, must get as concerned "as the social worker you now, perhaps reluctantly, employ."

Allen Temko of University of California was to speak to the supervisors at a luncheon session on whether county government can survive. Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, was to speak at 3 p.m. The supervisors planned to end the day by attending the San Francisco Giants baseball game at Candlestick Park.

High School Gym To Open For Children

San Rafael High School gymnasium will be open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. each Saturday starting tomorrow for children's recreation activity, the San Rafael Parks and Recreation department has announced.

Supervised after-school recreation, sponsored by the department and San Rafael city schools, started this week on school playgrounds. Activity includes softball, volleyball, basketball, tennis and other sports.

For fourth through eighth grade pupils, Santa Venetia Middle School from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday and Fridays and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturdays; Terra Linda High School 3:30-5:30 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays, 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturdays.

For third through sixth grade pupils, boys' programs will be 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and girls' softball 3:30 to 5 p.m. Boys' programs will be Mondays and Wednesdays at Glenwood and Bahia Vista schools, Tuesdays and Thursdays at San Pedro and Sun Valley schools.

Girls' softball will be Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at Glenwood School, Mondays and Wednesdays at San Pedro School, Tuesdays at Sun Valley and Bahia Vista schools and Fridays at Laurel Dell School.

Clausen Park Plan Favored

Rep. Donald L. Clausen's "Redwoods to the sea" park proposal was unanimously endorsed today by representatives of the North Coast Counties Supervisors Association at a meeting in Tiburon.

The resolution of endorsement was introduced by Supervisor Harold Del Ponte of Del Norte County, Clausen's home county.

Approving the resolution were supervisors from Marin, Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino, Sonoma, Lake, Napa, and San Francisco counties.

Association vice president William A. Gnoss, Marin County supervisor, said he believed the Marin board would endorse the plan also.

Officers Halt A Span Jump

An unemployed photographer from Milpitas, whose wife left him, was prevented from jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday at 10:30 p.m. by a California Highway Patrol officer.

Officer Arthur S. Olson saw a parked car near the south tower and its driver, David Benjamin Walker, 28, of Milpitas, standing by the bridge railing.

Walker had this note pinned to his jacket: "Shirley, I cannot go on without you and the children. I worshipped you! If there is a God, I hope he will forgive me."

He was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Novato Phone Book Bilk Cases Probed

Two cases of payments for advertising on undeliverd telephone book covers have been reported to Novato police.

Both involve Herbert G. Moore who sold similar advertising to San Rafael merchants and has disappeared.

Mrs. Virginia Keener Redogar of Cotati, owner of Sunshine Cleaners at 447 Entrada Drive, Novato, told police yesterday that she gave Moore a $180 check on Jan. 25. The phone book covers were to be delivered the first week in April, she said.

Ruby E. Ellison of Lafayette, owner of Novato Builders at 824 Sweetser Avenue, said she gave Moore $280 for advertising on Jan. 13.

Milky Way History To Be Talk Topic

Ivan King, professor of astronomy at University of California at Berkeley, will talk about "The History of the Milky Way" at 8 p.m. Thursday at the supervisors chambers at the Civic Center.

His talk will be sponsored by the Astronomical Society of the Pacific and the Star Observers of Marin, an astronomy study group.

Novatan Reports Husband Missing

A Novato man went to Porterville Tuesday to seek work and has not been reported since, Novato police said today.

Mrs. Alda Maria Davis of 701 Lamont Avenue told police her husband, Franklin Russell Davis, 35, arrived in Porterville and saw an uncle, Albert Dewey, but has not since been heard from.

The moon is between its first quarter and full stage. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

Born on this day in 1926 was Queen Elizabeth II of Britain.

In 753 B.C., Rome was founded by Romulus.

In 1945, a broadcast from Germany said Russian troops had moved inside the city limits of Berlin.

In 1954, U.S. Air Force planes began flying French troops from Paris to Indochina to reinforce the bastion at Dien Bien Phu.

In 1965, the United Nations disarmament commission reconvened for the first time since 1960, when there was a stalemate.

A thought for the day—Irish dramatist Richard Brinsley Sheridan once said: "Conscience has no more to do with gallantry than it does with politics."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Thoughtful Play Is Needed To Trap A Tight Defense

When your opponents are tight defenders you must sometimes make very thoughtful plays. The brainwork may not be needed against the average taxpayer, but it will work just as well.

AVERAGE PLAY

When today's hand was played a few weeks ago in the annual Intercollegiate Bridge Championships, West led the ten of clubs. South invariably won with the ace of clubs, and most declarers shot back the queen of hearts.

The average East took the ace of hearts and returned a low diamond. This rode to West's king, and a diamond return forced out the ace. Now South led a heart, finessing with dummy's ten.

SOUTH SWEEP

East could cash the ten of diamonds, but then South had the rest.

In a few cases South went down because East defended like a bridge player. East simply refused to take the ace of hearts when South led the queen of hearts at the second trick.

EIGHT TRICKS

Now South had eight tricks, but tight defense would prevent him from getting a ninth. South was unable to set up and cash dummy's hearts, and a sensible East would avoid giving declarer a second diamond trick.

South should make the contract even against tight defense by making his heart plays in the reverse order. He should lead the low heart first, trying a finesse with dummy's ten.

SUIT SET UP

If East takes the first heart with the jack, South can later overtake the queen of hearts with dummy's king. This sets up the suit while the king of spades remains as an entry. If East refuses the first heart, declarer leads a low heart from dummy and thus makes sure at once of two heart tricks.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1-no trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ K 6 5
♥ K 10 9 8 7
♦ J 8
♣ 5 3 2.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two hearts.

The hand is not quite strong enough for game unless partner has a good heart fit and at least 17 points. If he has such a hand, he will raise to three hearts; and if he doesn't have such a hand you are content to play the hand at two hearts.

● WE'VE GOT TO BE KIDDING

you say? Nope these owners are merely anxious to find appreciative buyers for their luxurious 4 bedroom, 3 bath home and are making it unbelievably easy by asking only 10% DOWN!!! It offers a picture window view of Mt. Tam, gorgeous entry & fireplace of Arizona flagstone, carpets, drapes, formal dining room, 2 lovely terraces, one of which happens to have a 20'x40' pool & cabana tucked way up back, so your teenagers can "whoop 'n holler" this summer in the pool while you doze in the sun on the lower terrace! It's also only a short walk to the Kent Woodlands Gate too! Definitely in the "must see" category for home-lovers!

HOW TO FIND MORE LEISURE

Garden, pool service and building maintenance are no longer YOUR CHORES. . . a hired man does this work (your share of this cost is a pittance) and you are completely free to really "live a little."

(In a Peacock Hill townhouse you are just 3 short blocks from the first tee at Peacock Gap Golf Course)

A very limited number of two and three bedroom homes of deluxe quality and design are available. Immediate occupancy . . . best financing.

JUST LISTED!
This showplace speaks eloquently of hospitality and unquestioned comfort with its excellent floor plan consisting of 3 bedrooms, 2½ baths, formal dining room, warm family room w/frpl., plus "ankle-sinking" pale green wall-to-wall carpeting, lovely drapes and a magnificent, over-all view of the San Francisco skyline, Belvedere Island & the Bay to make a "lighthouse keeper's daughter" envious! The whole home & setting would be a marvelous natural "habitat" for a family who makes a lovely home the center of their lives and activities, not just a "hat-catcher"! Better call us now if you're interested in this Reedlands beauty, as it is sure to find a new owner fast!

Just Reduced!
Nothing compares with this Norman Gilroy designed "cliff hanger" that offers an unchallenged view of the action on the Bay . . . or Sam's dock too, which can be pretty fascinating if you're a "people watcher"! It's a uniquely arranged multi-level, 4-bedroom, 2½-bath Redwood home with large view deck. Great for a "swingin'" party-giving, sophisticated family. Dock your boat below at Corinthian Yacht Club and join the "in" crowd on the hill! Substantial price reduction, so this will be "snapped up" by a shrewd sailor soon!

San Anselman Gets $7,200 Scholarship

A San Anselmo man has been awarded a three-year $7,200-plus scholarship to study sociology and religion at the Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley.

Russell W. Galloway Jr., of 21 Rowland Court, is one of 49 men and women selected for benefit under the Kent Graduate Fellowship program, aimed at helping graduate students prepare for teaching or educational administration posts.

The fellowship provides for three years of study with an annual stipend of $2,400 for a single person plus tuition and fees.

Galloway may get even more, although he is single at present. Married persons get $2,950 under the program and Galloway is engaged to be married.

He graduated from high school in Middletown, Ohio and Wooster College, and gained a law degree at Columbia Law School. He has lived in San Anselmo two years.

Stroller Stolen

Doreen N. McClure of 36 Ash Avenue, San Anselmo, told San Anselmo police yesterday at 5:15 p.m. that a baby stroller worth $20 had been taken from in front of her home.

Phone Users Having Their Hearing Day

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Consumer witnesses are having their inning today in the State Public Utility Commission's hearing on Pacific Telephone Co.'s $181 million rate increase request.

The company asks the $181 million boost in annual revenues to produce an 8 per cent return on its investment. Under existing PUC order Pacific Telephone's investment return is restricted to 6.3 per cent.

Declining earnings since 1962 have forced the company to stretch out its modernization program, Richard C. Frey, engineering vice president, testified yesterday.

Such spending has slipped from $32.1 million in 1963 to $9.9 million in 1966, Frey said.

Of $453.5 million being spent in 1967 on construction only $11.2 million will go for modernization, he said. He reported the balance represents spending essential for maintenance of service.

After hearing pulic witnesses today, the commission will move the hearings to Los Angeles next Wednesday.

Missing Juvenile Found By Deputy

TELEVISION REVIEW

NBC Most Happy Carson Returning

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —The not entirely surprising return of Johnny Carson to NBC-TV's "Tonight" show this coming Monday provides the star with a chance for opportune one-upmanship on his new late-night competitor, Joey Bishop.

While Carson was off the air during negotiations by his lawyers—Louis Nizer and Arnold Grant—for a new contract with NBC-TV, Bishop this past Monday began his late-night series for the opposing ABC-TV network.

SOME WORRIED

There were more than a few executives at NBC-TV who were not entirely sad that Carson was away, and that Jimmy Dean was substituting for him, during the first night or two of Bishop's new show, and these officials were thinking in entirely pragmatic terms. For they definitely wanted Carson back on a steady basis.

But their thinking was that Bishop would probably get a high rating for his debut strictly out of curiosity value for a new show—and this was exactly what happened, with Dean and the "Tonight" program getting clobbered the first night of Bishop's series.

The thinking, therefore, was that it was just as well that Dean, and not Carson, was taking the short end of the ratings, for clobbering a substitute could hardly serve as a publicity springboard for ABC-TV and the Bishop series to be unduly gleeful.

In fact, there has also been some thinking to the effect that NBC-TV's scheduling of Bob Newhart as next week's "Tonight" host—if Carson hadn't returned—was also somewhat calculated. For the talk was that if Carson had definitely quit, Newhart had an inside track to succeed him, and in no case would it have looked good for even a potential host of "Tonight" to be defeated by a smaller network's late-night show. So Dean was allowed to take it on the chin.

At any rate, here we are several days later in terms of the Bishop premiere, and predictably, with the curiosity value gone a bit, his ratings have fallen off from the first night, and Carson can step right back into a going concern, and NBC-TV is rosy.

Drunken Driving

Arthur Elmore Wilen, 45, Petaluma, and Wesley Howard Silvey, 30, of 342 Irwin Street, San Rafael, were fined $174 each and placed on a year's probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. Both were arrested by California Highway Patrol — Wilen on April 8 and Silvey, April 10 — on Highway 101.

Top Peabody Award To Capote Tale

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Broadcasting Co.'s production of Truman Capote's story, "A Christmas Memory", was honored today with a George Foster Peabody Award as one of the "very finest TV hours of 1966" in the entertainment field.

Cited in the field of broadcast news were Harry Reasoner of the Columbia Broadcasting System, honored for his television essays, and Edwin Newman of the National Broadcasting Co., who received the Radio News Award for his commentaries.

The 27th annual awards were presented by Dean John E. Drewry of the University of Georgia's Henry W. Grady School of Journalism at a luncheon of the broadcast pioneers. The school, along with the Peabody board, administers the awards.

The awards in the field of television education were shared by the "National Geographic Specials" on CBS and "American White Paper: Organized Crime in the United States" on NBC.

The Peabody board also made a special award to the National Educational Television network and its producing stations "for swimming valiantly against the current which seems to be sweeping TV toward mediocrity."

Tom John, art director and set designer for the highly acclaimed CBS production of Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman", also was honored with a special award for his work on that show and two others — the Barbra Streisand special, "Color me Barbra", and "The Strollin' Twenties".

Low-Cost Housing Architects Report

Marin County Housing Authority commissioners last representatives of five architectural firms to design the proposed 20-unit development of low-cost housing for the elderly in Novato, reported Donald O. Stutsman, authority director.

Selection was deferred pending further study of the architects' qualifications, he said. The five are Bushnell, Jessup, Murphy and Van DeWeghe; Crawford and Banning; Hayes and Smith; Phillips and Finisy, and Stewart and Stolte.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Hombre' Is Another Entry Set To Break Old Western Mold

By LES DARD

RAFAEL THEATER

"Hombre" is now on screen, a new western which rises far above a traditional mold, and hopefully will set a standard for quality to come.

The screenplay is excellent. Performances are tops from the best in the business, and the photography, by James Wong Howe, is superb.

Paul Newman stars as a white man brought up by the Apaches. Very sketchily, the plot has him on a stagecoach where he saves the lives of his fellow passengers when they are ambushed by bandits.

What's of the most interest are the characters. Newman's tempered manner barely conceals a harsh life of bitterness and yet of ultimate nobility. The other passengers include Frederic March, a haughty Indian agent who has absconded with money meant to feed the Apaches; Martin Balsam as the Mexican stage driver; and Richard Boone a cruel and villainous stranger who turns out to be the ringleader of the ambush, Diane Cilento, Barbara Rush, Peter Lazar and Frank Silvera also contribute.

NOVATO THEATER

Now playing is the monumental ex-cinerama entry, "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

The story is that of the last three years of Jesus Christ — a sort of compendium of the four Gospels. It used to be that motion pictures took the circus approach to the Bible, with sword bearers, dancing girls and wild scrambles by thousands of extras. But the handling here is slow and deliberate, quiet and almost unpretentious. In short, it attempts to give an important event in the history of mankind the meaning it deserves.

Max Von Sydow takes the role of Christ, and who is to say this isn't the way he really was — a simple, humble man, a person who tempered his religious fervor with self reserve yet was able to communicate with great force his hopes and his ideals. Christ is somewhat of a mysterious figure, and the film does little to dispel this all-important veil of wonder.

The supporting cast is so long that space won't permit a full summary. Some notables include Dorothy McGuire, Telly Savalas, Robert Loggia, Donald Pleasance, David McCallum, Charlton Heston, Ed Wynn, Martin Landau and Jose Ferrer.

101 DRIVE-IN

It's a farce, yes, and wild comedy is slung around like bullets in a saloon, but it has the professional touch and is never overplayed to the point of slapstick.

LARK THEATER

"A Man and A Woman" is happily still with us. If you're a lover of true cinema, this is the place to come. Jean-Louis Trintignant and Anouk Aimee are the stars, along with some absolutely stunning photography and music.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Now showing is "Alfie," featuring Cockney star Michael Caine. The wild humor will make you laugh, the ending will make you cry and you'll never forget those half-intelligible British dialects.

FAIRFAX THEATER

If you don't already know why everybody loves Julie Andrews, come and see "The Sound of Music," a perfect bill for the whole family.

She plays a young postulant at a pre-World War II Austrian Abbey who just isn't cut out for cloistered life. She revels in the living of every moment, so her understanding Mother Superior sends her off to become governess for the seven motherless children of handsome Baron Van Trapp (Christopher Plummer). She manages to transform the unruly brood into the world-famed Trapp Family Singers.

SEQUOIA THEATER

MOTOR MOVIES

The latest Walt Disney show this season is "Bullwhip Griffin." It features Roddy McDowell as a proper Bostonian butler who lands in gold Rush California and finds himself in a sea of troubles.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

A Russian submarine runs aground on a resort island off Massachusetts. It sends a party ashore, which the terrified inhabitants believe to be an invasion — the prelude to World War III. All ends happily but it has quite a number of laughs getting there.

NORTHGATE THEATER

Another switch of countries here — the British have sent us "Georgy Girl," and we should send them our deepest thanks.

What is probably the year's most delightful film concerns the Georgy of the title, whose large, awkward form hides a sensitive, loving soul. Lynn Redgrave does a terrific job as Georgy.

Plane Crash Victim Serious

His son, James A. Garrity, 29, Los Gatos, also suffered serious injuries in Wednesday night's accident.

Handel Oratorio 'Samson' Slated

A group of soloists from the Inverness Music Festival will join the Sir Francis Drake High School and Evening School mixed choruses in a performance of G. F. Handel's oratorio, "Samson," in the Drake High School auditorium at 8 p.m. today.

The oratorio will be free to the public.

Soloists are: Samson, Kent Weaver; Micah, Reba Mason; Manoah, Walter Weaver; Delilah, Thelma Dickson. The accompanist is Fae McNally. Darrell Parker will conduct the choruses.

Giants Win! Battle Of Lefthanders On Tap Tonight

"You guys thought we'd never win another game, didn't you?" asked Herman Franks, whose San Francisco Giants meet Atlanta tonight.

"Well ,you know what? We're going to lose at least six more games this year," Franks told newsmen after the Giants snapped a six game losing streak yesterday by handing St. Louis a 7-5 defeat for the Cards' first loss of the season.

Franks had reason to be happy. They rocked Cardinal starter Al Jackson with a five-run second inning and Willie Mays returned to the lineup with two hits in three at-bats.

"Willie still isn't 100 per cent ready," said Franks. "I never know how Mays feels because he isn't a complainer. He just told me before the game he was ready to go and I was glad to have him back."

After Mays singled, starting the inning, Jim Hart and Jesus Alou singled, loading the bases. Dick Dietz struck out, then Hal Lanier came up for the game's key play .

Lanier ripped a grounder back to the mound, a made-to-order doubleplay ball. Jackson hesitated for a moment and, instead of going to the plate, threw to second, where shortstop Dal Maxvill dropped the ball for an error.

Winning pitcher Bob Bolin (1-1) singled, Tito Fuentes grounded out and rookie Ken Henderson's two - run single capped the rally.

"I had only one play on Lanier's ball," lamented Jackson, blaming himself for the Cards' loss after six victories. "I don't know why I didn't throw home. I made a mistake and it really bugs me. There is no excuse for mental errors."

The Giants added two runs in the sixth on a walk to Dietz and back-to-back doubles by Bolin and Fuentes. Lou Brock opened the game with his sixth home run and Roger Maris' double and a sacrifice fly gave the Cards a second run in the fourth.

The Cards chased Bolin in the seventh when Orlando Cepeda, Phil Gagliano and Julian Javier singled for one run. Pinch-hitter Bob Tolan's ground out off Lindy McDaniel made it 7-4.

A walk to Maris and Cepeda's double in the eighth brought in Bill Henry, who served up a single to McCarver for the Cards' last run of the day. Frank Linzy came in and retired the side and also put the Cards down in order in the ninth.

"I was throwing looser than I have all year," offered Bolin. "But I'm still not loose enough. I'll be ready by the All Star break, though."

The Giants, who can't wait that long, send Mike McCormick against the Braves' Denny Lemaster at Candlestick Park in a battle of left-handers tonight, 8 o'clock.

New Franks Is Quiet, Friendly To Reporters

Herman Franks doesn't know quite what to make of the 1967 Giants. And baseball writers don't know what to make of the manager of the Giants.

Reporters covering the dressing room following one Giant defeat after another expected to find Franks climbing the walls. But the roughter the going got, the calmer Franks became.

ONE REPORTER WAS flabbergasted when Franks greeted him courteously and actually shook his hand after the 2-1 11-inning loss to the Cardinals in the home opener at Candlestick Park.

"I couldn't believe it," said the reporter who never previously exchanged a civil word with Franks. "I'll remember opening day in Candlestick not because of the weather or the ball game but because the man greeted me with a handshake. After that, I got to believe he's been putting on an act these past seasons."

Reporters Can't Figure Him Out

Other dressing room reporters, similarly amazed by the calm manner in which Franks conducted himself under the stress of temporary adversity, were not as charitable in their assessment of the new look to the manager.

"I CAN'T FIGURE him out," said one. "Does he thrive on adversity?"

Franks doesn't thrive on adversity. No baseball manager does. All of them suffer in defeat. Some are able to take defeat in the same manner they accept victory.

BUT FRANKS never accepted a victory graciously. Time and again during his rookie year of managing three seasons ago when it appeared the Giants would go all the way to a pennant, Franks was a shouter—and not a polite shouter.

As a sophomore manager last season, Franks still was a shouter. He vowed during spring training this year that he was going to be nice to every dressing room reporter.

Like A Volcano Ready To Erupt

Nobody expected him to keep his promise after the Giants skidded into the National League cellar by winning only one of their six opening road games and then frittering away the home opener in Candlestick.

BUT HE HASN'T raised his voice yet and now dressing room reporters are debating whether they should get up a pool, the winner of which would be the fellow predicting the date Franks blows his top.

"It just doesn't seem natural for him to act this way," said one of the skeptics. "I know he's been quiet, too quiet, like a volcano ready to spew fireworks. I don't know whether I like him better this way or when he's shouting obscenities."

Dallas Golf Postponed For A Day

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The second round of the $100,000 Greater Dallas Open Golf Tournament was postponed because of rain today and will be played tomorrow. The tournament will be extended a day, finishing Monday.

Postponement came when heavy rains accompanied by lightning held the start of play through 9:15 a.m.

At the same time the postponement was announced. Arnold Palmer, golf's greatest money winner who slumped to a six-over-par 76 in the opening round yesterday, asked permission to withdraw because he was ill. Permission was granted.

Palmer was on hand to start the second round Friday, despite the fact that he was suffering from a cold and had expressed weariness through having played in eight of the last nine tournaments.

LIKE LAST YEAR

It was, reminiscent of 1966 when a round was postponed twice before it could be gotten in, and the tournament didn't finish until Tuesday of the following week.

There have been 14 tournaments on the PGA tour this year, and in only three of them has the first round leader emerged winner.

Brewer, however, is playing the best golf of his career and fired his third 64 of the campaign yesterday. He also equaled the record first round in the tournament's history — the 64 shot by John McMullin in the opening round of 1958.

And it also tied the lowest starting round of the year —the 64 Jerry Steelsmith shot at San Diego where he didn't finish in the money.

And there was another angle — McMullin tied for first in the 1958 tournament yet lost in the playoff.

But Brewer could point to the fact that three fellows did lead all the way this year and won — Arnold Palmer, who had a first round 66 at Tucson; Don Sikes, who had a 67 on his home course at Jacksonville, Fla., and Frank Beard, who fired a 65 in the opening round of the Tournament of Champions.

COW PALACE BALLET — Wally Jones of the Philadelphia 76ers and Rick Barry of the San Francisco Warriors form a great ballet duo during a battle for the wayward basketball at the Cow Palace last night. Barry won this battle but the Warriors lost the war.
(UPI Telephoto)

Warriors Lose At Cow Palace

"We want to win it Sunday," declared Coach Alex Hannum whose Philadelphia 76ers have the National Basketball Association title within their grasp.

Sharpshooting by Hal Greer, Chet Walker and Wally Jones plus a fantastic defensive performance by 7-foot 1-inch Wilt Chamberlain brought Philadelphia a 122-108 triumph over San Francisco's Warriors last night in the Cow Palace and a 3-1 edge in their best-of-seven series.

Returning to Philadelphia for Sunday's battle, the crown appeared all but wrapped up for the 76ers, the first for Chamberlain since he joined the league in 1960.

"Wilt never played better," admitted Warrior Coach Bill Sharman. "Every time I looked up, he was blocking a shot. He must have blocked 15."

The big star also pulled down 27 rebounds and had 8 assists.

REVENGE

"I don't believe he ever has had a better defensive game," added Hannum who appears on the verge of gaining revenge on the Warriors who fired him after last season.

Jones hit 14 points in the first quarter and then suffered an injury to his right ankle. Greer took up the slack and, after only two free throws in the opening period, finished with 38 points for the night.

Walker unloaded in the final stanza with 14 and 33 total to insure victory before 15,117, the largest crowd ever to watch pro basketball in San Francisco. Another 1,300 took in the game via closed circuit television at the downtown Civic Auditorium.

"GOOD FOR OLD MAN"

The 30-year-old Greer commented, "For an old man, I guess I had a good game. Everyone took up the slack but we could not break the game open. We would get up by 15 and 17 and they would come back."

With three minutes left, the Warriors cut the edge to eight points but then it was Greer, with two free throws and a field goal, who broke it open.

Veteran Al Attles, who checked Greer on Tuesday night, picked up two quick fouls this time and then suffered a cut above his eye requiring 10 stitches before he could come back for more action.

Chamberlain played all over the court and often blocked shots by the 6-11 Nate Thurmond who had outplayed him on Tuesday night.

DIFFERENT STORY

This time it was different. Chamberlain scored only 10 as he directed the attack, but Thurmond wound up with but eight —just two in the entire second half.

"Greer kept us going in the third quarter and Chet did it in the fourth," declared Hannum. "Our size and our strength did it. We played superlative defense."

SHUTOUT FOR KING

Marin' Cats Win

Marin Catholic High School's baseball team erupted for four runs in the third inning, three of them earned, as ace Brian King hurled the Wildcats to a 4-0 triumph over Terra Linda yesterday, at Kentfield.

The victory upped the Wildcats' Marin County Athletic League record to 2-2, and put Terra Linda's record at 2-1.

King, who struck out seven and walked two in his brilliant, two-hit dual with Trojan Ron Timmel who registered as many strikeouts and allowed three hits, tossed a mere 71 pitches during his seven-inning stint.

The 'Cats mounted their rally after Jerry Handlos, centerfielder, was hit by a pitched ball. Bob Bianchini walked and King tapped an infield single to load the bases. Second baseman Ron Maloney pushed the first run home with a bunt, while slugger Harry Matsinger, .375, followed suit to score another tally, King coming home on the overthrow at first. Maloney, meanwhile, advanced to third and scored on a subsequent infield grounder by Mike Giacomini.

Tamalpais' track team, though crippled by injury, breezed past Drake's thinclads 82-44 in varsity competition, while the Pirate B and Freshman team's salvaged a bit of revenge with victories. Reggie Walker was a triple winner for the Class A victors; and Dan Payne won three events for Tam's "Bee" squad.

Tam's varsity tracksters are minus the services of sprinter Allen Lee, a junior sensation with a 9.8 clocking to his credit this season (pulled hamstring muscle); sprinter Bill Hinman (injured knee) and pole vaulter Scott Laurie (pulled hamstring muscle) who has cleared 12-0.

Elsewhere around the league, in tennis action, Tamalpais downed Marin Catholic; Redwood dumped Novato, and front-running San Rafael (3-0) whipped Terra Linda, each of the visiting teams winning by a shutout; while Drake blanked Salesian in a practice match on the losers' court.

27-Year-Old Millionaire Buys Seals Hockey Team

OAKLAND (AP — The California Seals of the National Hockey League have been taken over by 27-year-old millionaire Barry Van Gerbig.

The handsome young heir made the announcement yesterday that he had bought out his partner, the Shasta Corp.Terms were not disclosed in the deal for the Oakland-based team that played in the Western Hockey League last season.

Van Gerbig, formerly of West Palm Beach, Fla., said he had the backing of several business men from the San Francisco-Oakland area.

Shasta Corp. owns the Ice Follies, the San Francisco Golden Gate Gales of the professional United Soccer League and Winterland Arena in San Francisco.

The announcement said that Shasta felt its diverse interests did not allow it to devote enough time for hockey, which it said needed "single ownership and specialized management."

A number of personnel changes also were announced.

Frank Selke Jr., now an official of the Montreal Canadiens, will take over for Shasta's Kevin Keating as executive vice president.

The Seals' director of communications, Tim Ryan of Toronto, will be vice president in charge of public relations. Jim Lingel was named vice president in charge of sales.

Van Gerbig said Rudy Pilous, who has three years to go on a four-year contract, will remain as general manager.

Bert Olmstead, coach of the WHL Vancouver Canucks, and Frank Mathers, coach of the American Hockey League Hershey Bears, were named by Van Gerbig as the two men in line for the Seals' coaching job.

Charley Burns, the player-coach of the Seals the past season, has been offered the jobs of coach and general manager with the proposed WHL franchise in Phoenix, Ariz., which Van Gerbig said will have a working agreement with the Seals. Burns was present at the news conference and helped Van Gerbig show off the new uniforms the Seals will wear for their first NHL season.

Auerbach May Buy Celtics

BOSTON (AP) — Red Auerbach, who built the Boston Celtics into a sports dynasty, is expected to take a seat soon as an owner of the National Basketball Association club.

A group headed by Auerbach and Jack Waldron, the Celtics president, is negotiating with Marvin Krater, board chairman of both the club and National Equities, Inc., which owns the NBA franchise.

"We think we have a very good chance," Auerbach said yesterday after Kratter announced the Celtics are for sale "at the proper price to the proper people."

DISCUSSED

Kratter said that he, Auerbach and Waldron have discussed the matter as well a "about 20 other offers we've received in the last year." Only a concrete offer appears needed to complete the transaction.

"I would say that Jack and Red have a very good chance to buy the club," Kratter said.

Waldron noted that the biggest stumbling block is that any other offer would have to be matched in that Kratter must protect stockholders of National Equities.

The corporation, which deals mainly in real estate and land development, purchased the club for $3 million from the estate of Walter A. Brown and Lou Pieri in 1965. Brown and Pieri bought the Celtics in 1950 when the Boston Garden-Arena Corp. wanted out after four costly years.

Brown, who also was president of the Garden, hired Auerbach as coach and the Celtics fortunes began to rise as attendance picked up with the team's improved showing on the court.

Willie Mays returned to the Giant lineup yesterday and got a typical greeting card form St. Louis pitcher Jim Gibson, who forced Mays to bite the dust after a close pitch in the third inning. Wondrous Willie got up and ignited a five-run rally with a single, propelling the Giants to a 7-5 victory that snapped a six-game losing streak. (UPI Telephoto)

Tar Netters Win 15th Straight

Fifteen in a row, six to go.

College of Marin's tennis team yesterday made it 15 straight conference dual meet victories, going back two years, by whipping Santa Rosa, 6-1, winning all but one singles match and sweeping the doubles.

Other Tars singles winners were Jim Bedilion, Rich Miller and Mort Gray while Zweig and Bedilion and Ken Shane and Miller teamed up for doubles victories.

Senior League Signup

San Anselmo Senior Baseball League's final signups will be held tomorrow, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Memorial Park. Each boy must present proof of age and be accompanied by at least one parent, it was announced.

Flashy Track Meets On Tap In Bay Area

COMBINED AP & UPI

Weather permitting, there will be a pair of flashy track meets in the Bay Area tomorrow. Stanford will be fed into the Southern California meat-grinder while California hosts San Jose State and Washington State in more evenly-balanced competition.

Stanford regains some of its injured for the Trojan tussle but USC's depth should prevail. The event has been shifted to the all-weather track at Foothill College in Los Altos.

San Jose's Tommie Smith and Lee Evans should dominate the 100 through 440, while Cal has the edge in the 880 and mile.

Washington State features Olympian Gerry Lindgren, who has not reached top form yet this season. If he is in shape, he will breeze to victories in the mile and two mile. But the Cougars do not have the depth of the other two teams.

BOXING

BASKETBALL

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia — Brazil defeated Italy 60-50 for its second victory in the tournament determining seventh to eleventh places in the Women's World Basketball Championships.

TRACK AND FIELD

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Former star John Lawson of the Long Beach 49ers won the Julius Marks 10,000-meter run in 29:55.4 over 19-year-old Juan Martinez of Mexico, opening the 42nd Kansas Relays.

GOLF

PINEHURST, N.C. — A 40-foot birdie putt provided the winning spark for Phyllis Tish Preuss. And Connie Day, played at a sparkling two-under pace as they gained the final of the North and South Women's Amateur.

AUTO RACING

MARTINSDALE, Va. — Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., whose 1967 Plymouth was clocked at 77.753 miles per hour, se tthe fastest speed in practice for Sunday's Virginia 500 stock car race.

HORSE RACING

Cincy Reds Edge Dodgers In 13th Inning; Mets Win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

He needed all the help he could get in the 13th inning of the Reds' 3-1 victory over Los Angeles last night.

Pavletich was on first base with a one-out walk when Gerry Arrigo bunted. Ron Perranoski, the Dodgers' third pitcher, grabbed the ball, thought about Pavletich lumbering towards second, hesitated just long enough, then wheeled and fired, hoping for the force.

He didn't get it.

Pavletich slid in safely, moved to third on a force play and then scored the winning run when Vada Pinson dropped a tantalizing single into short right field. The Reds got an insurance run on Pete Rose's base hit.

But Los Angeles pushed across a run in the bottom of the ninth on Jim Hickman's pinch double, tying the score at 1-1 and sending the game into extra innings.

Elsewhere in the National League, New York battered Chicago 6-1 and San Francisco ended St. Louis' six-game winning streak, 7-5.

Rookie pitcher Tom Seaver, a $40,000 bonus baby, got credit for his first big league victory, with Don Shaw, another rookie, finishing up. Veteran Curt Simmons was the loser.

A Wierd Time In Detroit As Tigers Nip Angels; Indians, White Sox Win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

"Weirdest inning I ever saw," said Al Kaline.

"We blew it," said Bill Rigney.

The star Detroit outfielder and morose California Angels manager were both reliving the final inning of the Tigers' 4-3 victory over the Angels yesterday that just about everything in it but a California run.

Things were proceeding normally enough until after the Tigers had tied the score in the bottom of the eighth on a wild pitch by Angel reliever Minnie Rojas. But then somebody cast the evil eye on California, and the strangest things started happening.

Jerry Lumpe came up to pinch hit and lined a shot at Jay Johnstone in short centerfield. The ball was below Johnstone's belt but he inexplicably grabbed at it with the fingers of his glove up instead of down. The ball fell away, allowing Jim Northrup to score the go-ahead run.

Lumpe said Johnstone was playing him "pretty shallow, but it might have been the difference. If he took the ball on one hop, we probably wouldn't have scored."

The Angels got out of the inning without further damage, and started their half of the ninth in fine fashion.

PICKED OFF

Rick Reichardt singled and was safe at second when Dick McAuliffe fumbled Don Mincher's double-play ball. But then Reichard was picked off by Tiger catcher Bill Freehan when Jimmie Hall missed a bunt attempt.

Don Wallace went in to run for Mincher and made Rigney look like a genius when he made it to third after Hall's grounder caromed off Detroit pitcher Fred Gladding's glove.

Gladding struck out Tom Satriano and, on the third strike, Hall broke for second and when Freehan threw down, Wallace started for the plate.

"With two good throws like that," said Detroit Manager Mayo Smith, "you just can't score on that kind of play. There's no way a runner can beat a thrown ball. I don't care if he's Jesse Owens."

OTHER GAMES

In the only other American League games, Cleveland blanked out Kansas City 2-0 and Chicago topped Washington 8-4. Minnesota at Baltimore was rained out.

Steve Hargan gave up just five hits in his first start for the Indians and became the first Cleveland pitcher to go the distance this season.

Chicago scored six times in the third inning, with two-run singles coming from Pete Ward and winning pitcher John Buzhardt. Ken Berry had three hits for the White Sox.

'Phantom' Will Ruin A Golfing Classic

I met Howard Hughes, America's Haunt, just once. The circumstances were typically mysterious. We rendezvoused outside his apartment in the Beverly Hills Hotel, climbed in a battered Chevrolet that looked as if it had just been picked up at auction, and motored out to his aircraft plant where the gate guard didn't recognize him.

MY MISSION was belligerent Hughes had just bought RKO, hired a friend of mine, Jerry Wald, and another man, Norman Krasna, to run it, had let them announce a program of about 40 pictures—and then had disappeared. He had $40 million worth of people sitting around waiting for the phone to ring.

Meanwhile, over in another part of town, he had this gigantic hunk of plywood into which had been sunk $60 million (most of it his, but a lot of it ours) which was called a "flying boat" but which flew at exactly 70 feet for one mile, thus breaking the Wright Bros. record, but not by much.

I DON'T remember Hughes' explanations, which were dutifully filed to the magazine and forgotten, but I do remember the strange dark eyes, the scraggly mustache, his offer to take us up in a Canadian jet he was building. I felt I was in the presence of an American Hamlet, a man for whom the word "eccentric" didn't begin to scratch the surface, whose greatest pleasure seemed to be to buy something and then let it rot in the sun. I knew a half dozen starlets and actors under personal contract to him whose talents atrophied in a well paying oblivion. "The Phantom," Bob Mitchum, the irreverent, called him.

A COMPLICATED man whose sporting achievements included the world's speed record in 1935 and the round-the-world record in 1938, Howard Robard Hughes mastered the world's toughest game, golf, in little over a year. He became a two-handicapper, and every plane coming up out of Texas for years had one or two scratch players with phony handicaps bankrolled by Texas highwaymen bent on separating Hughes from a few million he would never miss.

THAT WAS just the point: Hughes wouldn't miss the money; so he never flinched at a putt for a lousy $25,000. The other players would get hysterics, and become physical wrecks on the 18th green while Howard would putt as if it were a practice round. Some of them who came up north with mink hood covers and gold putters went home with pawn tickets—and by bus.

I BRING this up because Howard Hughes is, unintentionally but inevitably, about to wreck a fine American sporting event and put it over with his flying boat and the Wald-Krasna sets that never got on camera.

The Las Vegas Tournament of Champions is, by its very nature, one of the four finest golf tourneys of the world. It used to be a great story when they had a half-million-dollar Calcutta on the eve of the tournament, but misguided morality set in. It usually does. Golf made Vegas play it like it was the Immaculate Heart Open, or boccie ball in the vicarage.

BUT IT required the Desert Inn layout, a trying 18-hole test of wind, sand, water and woe worthy of the valor of the players matching it.

Some indefinable time ago, Howard Hughes descended on the Desert Inn, an improbable lair for this presumably ailing eagle. When the Tournament of Champions came up this year the management of the D.I. requested that Hughes move for a fortnight to some other domicile so they could house the golf throngs. Or so the story goes. When the request was brought to Hughes, he had his usual terse answer: "Buy it."

SO THEY went to his coat pocket and rummaged around for several million dollars in small change. And now the Desert Inn has joined the flying boat, the starlets, the studios, and the other whimsical acquisitions of the D.I.'s ghostly guest.

It was thought the transfer would take months, sparing this year's tournament. It didn't. And the golf had to be hurriedly moved to the smaller, more remote Stardust.

THE TOURNAMENT which brought much wholesome publicity to Las Vegas may now be expected to turn up dead in an Arizona motel any day now. The fingerprints they wipe off it will be Howard Hughes'. Meanwhile, the wagering is lively they will jack up the Desert Inn any day now and fly it for exactly one mile at an altitude of 70 feet and land it on water and anchor it.

The Big Splash! 600 Youths Ready For Marin Swim Meet

The age group meet, sanctioned by the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, is again being sponsored by the Marin Swim Club, Schultz Enterprises and Independent-Journal.

Action tomorrow and Sunday starts at 9 a.m. both days in the 25-meter heated, outdoor pool. Trophies will go to winning teams and individuals. Medals go to youngsters placing second and third, with ribbons going to those who place fourth through sixth.

There will be events for youngsters 8 and under, 9-10, 11-12, 13-14 and 15-17, both boys and girls. Competition will be in freestyle, breaststroke, backstroke and butterfly strokes and relays, 69 events in all.

Admission for the meet, attracting youngsters from throughout California and other West Coast states, is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

$3,050,000 DAMAGE SUIT

Pro Basketball War Is On

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The anticipated war for players between the established National Basketball Association and the emerging American Basketball Association has erupted with legal battles on two fronts.

The Los Anegles Lakers of the NBA took action yesterday, filing a $3,050,000 damage suit against the ABA and Laker forward Jim "Bad News" Barnes, who said earlier he signed with the Dallas Chaparrals of the newly-formed league.

NBA President Walter Kennedy said the Baltimore Bullets have begun legal action against the ABA, its New York franchise and player Leroy Ellis, who signed with the New York club last week.

"Each of the owners has advised me," said Kennedy, "that they intend to pursue the matter of players breaching contracts through the proper legal channels."

Thus, a full-scale conflict appears likely because many ABA owners feel there isn't enough talent outside the NBA to stock a productive professional league.

The Lakers' suit, filed by owner Jack Kent Cooke's California Sports, Inc., said the ABA carried on its negotiations with Barnes and other players in a "deliberate, malicious, wanton, reckless and unjustifiable manner."

Cooke was unavailable for comment, but Max Williams, Dallas operations manager, said in Dallas that he didn't think Los Angeles could sue Barnes for breach of contract.

"His contract with the Los Angeles Lakers has until Oct. 1 to run," said Williams. "We don't care if Los Angeles wants to play him until Oct. 1 because our contract isn't effective until that time. It seems to me the Lakers haven't investigated this very thoroughly."

Barnes said Wednesday his contract with Dallas calls for $25,000 a year for two years, plus a bonus. The 6-foot-8 graduate of Texas Western made $16,500 with the Lakers last season.

In other NBA business, in San Francisco, the new San Diego NBA team won a coin toss and the right to choose ahead of Seattle, the other fledgling team, in the league's expansion draft May 1 in New York.

San Diego and Seattle each will pick 15 players — three from each of the 10 present NBA teams, which will be able to protect seven of their 12 players — then take one more out of the pool after each draft round.

The two new franchises will also take part — along with the old 10 — in the college draft May 3 in New York.

Women's Week In Bowling! Mrs. Epidendio Tops List

It's been a week for women bowlers in Marin County, and scores from Greenbrae Lanes show no exception to the rule.

Marilyn Epidendio, San Rafael housewife, put together games of 203, 222 and 186 for a 611 series in the Mixed Mates League, headlining scores at Greenbrae Lanes. But 600 series aren't new to Mrs. Epidendio, who carries a 172 "book" average, one of the top women's marks in the county.

MontrealWhips Toronto In NHL Playoff Opener

MONTREAL (AP) — Little Henri Richard, the Pocket Rocket, is following in the footsteps of his retired brother Maurice, The Rocket, in scoring goals for the Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League playoffs for the coveted Stanley Cup.

The Pocket Rocket, a 5-foot-7 demon on skates, slapped home three goals to lead the Canadiens in a 6-2 rout of the Toronto Maple Leafs before 14,779 last night in the opener of the best-of-7 final Cup series.

Henri now has scored 28 goals in 93 NHL playoff games. This compares to the 82 Maurice tallied in 133 playoff games before his retirement in 1960 as the No. 1 playoff scorer.

Henri's first goal broke a 1-1 tie in the first period. He scored the last two in the third period to widen a 4-2 Montreal lead as the Canadiens chalked up their 11th straight victory and stretched their unbeaten streak to 16 in a row.

"We didn't skate much and they beat us to the puck all night," said Punch Imlach, the Toronto coach. He ordered a stiff workout today in an effort to sharpen the Leafs' play for the second game of the series here tomorrow afternoon.

Hawaiian Telephone Merger Is Favored

Shareowners of Hawiian Telephone Co. have approved the proposed May 1 merger with a new wholly-owned subsidiary of General Telephone and Electronics proposed at General Telephone's annual shareholders meeting in San Francisco on Tuesday.

It was General Telephone's first stockholders meeting in this area and was attended by approximately 500 shareholders. The company has its largest operation in California with over 2 million phones. There are about 25,000 phones in the Bay Area, with most of these in Novato (under Western California Telephone Co.) and many Novato residents are shareholders.

LENKURT ELECTRIC CO., INC., a subsidiary of General Telephone and Electronics Corp., has purchased three acres adjoining its property from Litton Industries for future growth. It is the second purchase of Litton property by Lenkurt within a year. Lenkurt now owns more than 46 acres in San Carlos and currently employs about 3,000 workers. Since 1950 its sales have increased more than 30 times. Sales volume and profit are not reported separately but are included in the consolidated report of GT&E.

RADIO CORPORATION OF AMERICA also achieved its best first-quarter sales and profits in its corporate history. Sales increased 16 per cent to a new first-quarter high of $683 million. Net income after taxes was $34.4 million, an increase of 8 per cent. Earnings per share of common stock were up to 57 cents from the 54 cents for the first quarter last year.

W. T. GRANT CO. sales of $71.0 million for March showed an increase of 13.9 per cent over March sales last year. Calendar year sales to date are $167 million a 8.1-per cent gain over last year's like period.

INTERNATIONAL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO. subsidiaries have received three contracts totaling $2.9 million. The U.S. Air Force awarded a $1.9 million contract to Federal Electric Corp. for services and materials for space systems. III Gilfillian Inc. has received a United Kingdom contract for carrier control approach radar and a contract for Holmes and Narver, Inc. for ground control approach radar.

OWENS-ILLINOIS, INC. earnings for the first quarter of 1967 were $7.88 million, down from $12.43 million last year, although sales rose from $209 million to $213 million. A major factor for the earnings decline was said to be the failure of color television to live up to first quarter expectations. Heavy promotion costs for developing nonreturnable beverage bottles and capital carrying costs of major construction projects were also said to be responsible.

I-J TO BEGIN WEST COAST STOCK REPORT

As a new feature of the business and financial page, the Independent-Journal will publish a daily selected list of local and California stocks from the Pacific Coast Exchange, beginning Monday.

About 35 stocks traded only on the Pacific exchange and not listed on either the New York or American exchanges will be given. Tabulations will include the name of the stock, dividend (if any), volume of shares traded, high and low prices, last price and net change, as at 11:30 a.m. daily.

Since the list is to be supplied as a "package," we will not be able to honor individual requests for specific stocks not included.

CONNIES GO ON THE BLOCK

Trans World Airlines' fleet of four-engine Constellations is up for sale. TWA switched to all jet this week. The three dozen prop jobs may be a bargain for someone, as attested by R. A. Magruder's sign in Kansas City, Mo. The workhorse transports originally cost $1 million each.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

If Stock's Yield Is High, It May Be Slow Growing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q "Where did I err in buying? I have Collins and Aikman and Smith, Kline and French. Neither of these stocks seems to get anywhere, although their yields range from four to five per cent. Would you advise me to switch one of these into Hammond Organ?" J.B.

A If I interpret your question correctly, what you are really aiming for is capital gains—which come mainly through growth in earnings and dividends. What you bought were two stocks which are good income producers, but—as regards earnings—have either stood still or slowed down considerably.

It is an axiom of the marketplace that the yield on a stock is in inverse proportion to its grotwh. Hammond Organ, which you mention, yields 7.4 per cent because growth has been checked and dividend coverage is narrow. This stock should be avoided, if price appreciation is your goal. I suggest instead that you consider Cox Broadcasting.

Q. "Please explain why Avon Products has taken such a big jump. In January the stock sold at 76 and it recently reached a high of 100½." J.A.

A. I know of no special reason for the rise in Avon. A stock split is always a possibility when an issue gets into the upper price brackets, but no action along these lines has been suggested as this is written. The stock, of course, is a favorite with institutions, which hold 3.6 million shares according to my records.

When fears of a recession are given wide credence, there is often renewed interest in stocks such as this which have a tendency to resist a downturn in business. The recent rise in Avon is impressive, but I must emphasize again that it in the percentage. rather than the point change in a stock that is important. On this basis, similarly situated Bristol-Myers and Warner-Lambert have recorded almost identically the same gain.
